one of the biggest movements in american christianity especially among younger evangelicals is a groundswell of interest in the reformed tradition in reformed resurgence brad vermurlen provides a comprehensive sociological account of this new calvinist phenomenon and what it entails for the broader evangelical landscape in the united states

most white philosophers of religion generally presume that philosophy of religion is based on what is a false universality whereby the white western experience is paradigmatic of humanity at large the fact remains that howard thurman james h cone and william r jones among others have produced a substantial amount of theological work quite worthy of consideration by philosophers of religion yet this corpus of thought is not reflected in the scholarly literature that constitutes the main body of philosophy of religion neglect and ignorance of african american studies is widespread in the academy by including chapters on thurman cone and jones the present book functions as a corrective to this scholarly lacuna entangled alliances is a reinterpretation of the american revolution through analysis of diplomacy in the emerging united states during decades of hemispheric transformation ronald angelo johnson brings to light the fascinating story of american patriots and rebels from saint domingue later haiti allying against european tyranny the american revolution occurred between two of the greatest achievements in diplomacy of the eighteenth century the peace treaties at paris in 1763 and 1783 in entangled alliances johnson draws on original multilingual sources to offer readers fresh lively stories in a timely study while modern understandings of freedom are often linked to the us declaration of independence johnson argues that the desire of black atlantic inhabitants for liberty and their will to resist slavery predated the fateful standoff between minutemen and redcoats at lexington and concord entangled alliances is a us history of the american revolution fusing the search for freedom by black and white founders in the united states and saint domingue into a coherent story of collective resistance during the most explosive twenty year period of the eighteenth century this book lays out an application intensive approach to seeking out and developing qualified church leaders thoughtful analysis of key passages in acts and 1 timothy are balanced with practical action points in a contemporary context god intends for all of us to contribute to the mission of the local church and experience profound spiritual growth as a result this book shows church members pastors and leaders what a healthy church member looks like the book argues for seeing calvinian influence as the most significant influence for the scottish reform movement of 1560 it examines john calvin's understanding of discipline and interpretations of it by the wider continental calvinian family particularly john a lasco val r rand poullain and the french reformed church and their connections and influences on the scottish reformation

some of the leading voices in evangelical christianity reaffirm the importance of preaching biblical theology for the health of our churches loving teaching and rightly dividing the word of god is every pastor's privilege and responsibility if a pastor understands what the word says about God, man, and the cross about Christ and His substitutionary atonement and about the call to repentance and sacrifice, he will develop and preach a sound theology and sound theology is in the words of J. I. Packer, "essential to faithful pastoral ministry." Proclaiming a theology that is centered on Christ's atonement is especially critical for by this atonement Christians have been brought from death to life and by it a church lives or dies. In this penetrating sequel to Preaching the Cross, John Piper, R. C. Sproul, John MacArthur, and Thabiti Anyabwile join authors Mark Dever, J. I. Packer, C. J. Mahaney, and Albert Mohler in exploring the church's need for faithful proclamation and calling pastors and churches to cross-centered, scripturally saturated thinking.
