this book critically analyses how men in prison act out their masculine identities it considers how men negotiate their time in prison which can involve being placed into a feminine position relative to other men and particularly looks at the subversion of heteronormative gender positionings through bodies spaces time and relationships vulnerability is also taken as a key consideration and men are shown to act out their masculinities for the benefit of an audience that matters to them however that audience is shown to be subject to change at any point in time using extensive ethnographic data drawn from adult male prisoners the book adopts the viewpoint of the individual prisoner as a frame to consider masculinity it also advances ethnographic research in criminology by reflecting upon the identity of researchers in prisons particularly the female researcher s gendered identity in such environments it will be of great interest to scholars of penology gender and ethnography based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in different types of prisons and drawing from interviews with prison officers partners and children as well as prison officers themselves this book will be essential reading for all those with an interest in prisons and the day to day interactions and
