some will be shocked to find out that the United States and Ho Chi Minh our nemesis for much of the Vietnam War were once allies indeed during the last year of World War II American spies in Indochina found themselves working closely with Ho Chi Minh and other anti colonial factions compelled by circumstances to fight together against the Japanese Dickey Bartholomew Feis reveals how this relationship emerged and operated and how it impacted Vietnam's struggle for independence the men of General William Donovan's newly formed Office of Strategic Services closely collaborated with communist groups in both Europe and Asia against the Axis enemies in Vietnam this meant that OSS officers worked with Ho Chi Minh and the Viet Minh whose ultimate aim was to rid the region of all imperialist powers not just the Japanese Ho for his part did whatever he could to encourage the OSS's negative view of the French who were desperate to regain their colony revealing details not previously known about their covert operations Bartholomew Feis chronicles the exploits of these allies as they developed their network of informants sabotaged the Japanese occupation's infrastructure conducted guerrilla operations and searched for downed American fliers and allied POWs although the OSS did not bring Ho Chi Minh to power Bartholomew Feis shows that its apparent support for the Viet Minh played a significant symbolic role in helping them fill the power vacuum left in the wake of Japan's surrender her study also hints that had America continued to champion the anti colonials and their quest for independence rather than caving in to the French we might have been spared our long and very lethal war in Vietnam based partly on interviews with surviving OSS agents who served in Vietnam Bartholomew Feis's engaging narrative and compelling insights speak to the yearnings of an oppressed people and remind us that history does indeed make strange bedfellows a biography of the Vietnamese peasant who led his people in a successful revolution for independence from France and in the war with South Vietnam historical experience shows that any country or nation that wants to survive develop and steadfast with its era must have its own political ideology or must choose the appropriate ideology at the same time historical experience also shows that this choice is only correct when on the one hand comes from the reality of the country from the personality of the nation from the earnest desire of the people and on the other hand must be consistent with the law of the inevitable and objective development of the society Ho Chi Minh's political thought is the development path of the Vietnamese revolution not only in the history of national liberation but also in the era of integration main author Assoc Prof Dr Phm Ngc Trâm edited by Dinh Tran Ngoc Huy MBA International University of Japan

Ho Chi Minh 19 May 1890 2 September 1969 born Nguyen Sinh Cung also known as Nguyen Tat Thanh and Nguyen Ai Quoc was a Vietnamese communist revolutionary leader who was prime minister 1945 55 and president 1945 69 of the democratic republic of vietnam north vietnam he was a key figure in the foundation of the democratic republic of vietnam in 1945 as well as the people s army of vietnam pavn and the viet cong during the vietnam war he led the viet minh independence movement from 1941 onward establishing the communist ruled democratic republic of vietnam in 1945 and defeating the french union in 1954 at the battle of dien bien phu he officially stepped down from power in 1965 due to health problems but remained a highly visible figurehead and inspiration for those vietnamese fighting for his cause a united communist vietnam until his death after the war saigon the former capital of the republic of vietnam was renamed ho ch minh city when saigon fell to north vietnamese forces on april 30 1975 the communist victory sent shockwaves around the world using ingenious strategy and tactics hồ chí minh had shown it was possible for a tiny nation to defeat a mighty western power the same tactics have been studied and replicated by revolutionary forces and terrorist organizations across the globe drawing on recently declassified documents and rare interviews with hồ chí minh s strategists and operatives this book offers fresh perspective on his blueprint and the reasons behind both the french 1945 1954 and the american 1959 1975 failures in vietnam concluding with an analysis of the threat this model poses today
