god's kingdom is our true home but we've picked up a habit of resisting it and when finally we do fall in most of us find we've survived so long outside his kingdom that we've lost all instinct for thriving in it that's where Roger Helland meets us Roger has thought long and studied hard on these matters he has pondered deeply what it means to be fully alive in Christ and for Christ and he's tested his insights in classrooms in churches with denominations but mostly in his own life in Magnificent Surrender he's distilled what he's learned into a field guide for kingdom living but Roger draws from an even deeper source his book derives its force and depth from Paul's letter to the Colossians indeed Magnificent Surrender is an extended pastoral reflection on and application of that letter Colossians in four brief chapters presents the glory of Jesus Christ and the glory of a life wholly submitted to him it is a manifesto of the rich life Magnificent Surrender heralds that brilliantly it's a wise loving and sometimes stern invitation to read Colossians again with fresh eyes and fierce resolve it's also a challenge to take to heart its promise and its exhortation that we can and must live in through with and for Christ who is all and in all supreme and sufficient Mark Buchanan from the foreword

in the tradition of Carl Wilson's Let's Talk About Love an unforgettable account of fame fandom and the problem of making art in the twenty-first century in his multi-hyphenate ambitions the musician who calls himself Juiceboxxx couldn't be more modern you might call him a punk rock rapper DJ record executive energy drink magnate journalist Leon Neyfakh has been something more than a fan of Juiceboxxx's since he was a teenager when he booked a show for the artist in a church basement in his hometown of Oak Park Illinois Juiceboxxx went on to the tireless lonely possibly hopeless pursuit of success on his own terms no club was too dank no futon too grubby if it helped him get to the next next level and for years Neyfakh remained haunted from afar was art really worth all the sacrifices if it was how did you know you'd made it and what was the difference anyway between a person like Juiceboxxx who devoted his life to being an artist and a person like Neyfakh who elected instead to pursue a stable career and a comfortable middle class existence much more than a brilliant portrait of a charismatic musician always on the verge of something big the next next level is a wholly contemporary story of art obsession fame ambition and friendship as well as viral videos rap
