i find television very educating every time somebody turns on the set i go into the other room and read a book groucho marx in 1957 vance packard wrote our american life through a large scale effort to use psychiatry and the social sciences to influence and manipulate buying has had impressive success below our level of awareness since 1957 there is great evidence that our culture has become a harbinger of emotional exploitation in more forms than we can recognize and irrational profit taking in more forms than we can image in these times investing in a charity is not easy within a gambling culture that has glamorized wind fall profits and run away ceo salaries it certainly worsens when these efforts become unfettered and ignored by business efforts that not only fail to provide a product of value but offer no product at all this madness can only succeed by turning huge profits through the creation of cannibalistic markets and non profit corporations that feed on gambling addictions which buy moments of hope as they excite and exploit risk instincts this baiting continues to validate at warp speed the assumption that we are a nation of impulse buyers we reverse like a school of starving gold fish fearful of the vibrations of mere foot steps and unable to notice bread crumbs on top of the water no doubt someone has convinced us that with every failure there will always be another roll of the dice the more relevant question of interest is who will roll those dice on your internet gambling site no doubt we have become more reactive but worse we have become less knowledgeable this writing is offered to encourage your thoughtfulness about your money and who and what you empower as you give it away the different approach taken by china and the west towards finance and the real economy rests upon philosophical foundations that have diverged fundamentally since the ancient world since the asian financial crisis in 1997 98 a tremendous transformation has taken place in the financial systems in both china and the west china has persisted steadily with reform of its financial system but it remains heavily protected from international competition in the west regulatory structures have been progressively dismantled permitting an unprecedented secular expansion of asset prices and debt relative to gdp the structure crashed to the ground with the collapse of asset prices in 2008 09 in the decade since the gfc asset prices and debt in the west have rebounded the west s financial system stands on a knife edge in 2018 china announced the intention to accelerate the opening up of the country s capital markets the way in which the chinese and the west s financial system interact constitutes a central issue in global political economy in the years ahead couples without children continue to be viewed as strange and too often they re only just tolerated but cheryl and ellis levinson a married couple who have lived childfree for twenty eight years don t just defend those who refrain from having children they celebrate them they also argue that society doesn t treat childfree couples fairly and that many couples with children are putting the world at risk overpopulation poses real dangers including an increased threat of climate change accelerated animal and plant extinctions and the wholesale destruction of rainforests and other habitats the levinsons explore the increasingly common choice to remain childfree and challenge the ethics of those who choose to procreate they consider a host of issues including liabilities facing children motivations to have children financial implications lack of parental preparation nature versus nurture and world sustainability despite the dangers of overpopulation many people continue to have children without thinking through the consequences it s time to take a larger view and consider whether or not there are enough of us
