this book explores the link between paul s belief that jesus is israel s messiah and his interpretation of the abrahamic land promise in galatians countering claims that paul replaces the promised land with the gift of the spirit or salvation esau mccauley argues that paul expands this inheritance to include the whole earth believing that as the seed of abraham and david jesus is entitled to the entire world as his inheritance and kingdom mccauley argues that scholars have neglected paul s expanded interpretation of the inheritance of the earth rarely appreciate the role that messianism plays in galatians and fail to acknowledge that second temple authors often portrayed royal and messianic figures as god s means of fulfilling the promises made to abraham and israel via the establishment of kingdoms through a comparison of texts from the pseudepigrapha apocrypha and the dead sea scrolls with galatians 3 1 4 7 5 21 mccauley argues paul s interpretation of jesus s death is a manifestation of second temple messianism because it ends the covenant curses outlined in deuteronomy and begins the restoration of the inheritance to abraham s offspring through the establishment of jesus s worldwide kingdom he concludes that paul s interpretation of the abrahamic inheritance is inseparable from his belief that jesus is israel s messiah
