life and songs of marlene dietrich marlene dietrich was one of hollywood's topmost stars and one of the greatest myths in cinema she was born in germany but later on after being discovered by josef von sternberg she migrated to the us to eventually become a citizen she was the seduction icon the fatal woman with the eternal femininity her intense militancy against nazism and her participation as a soldier in the second world war revealed an extraordinary aspect of her life and personality in this play marlene tells anecdotes and speaks about intimate experiences of her legendary life interweaved with the famous songs that illustrated it what is the mystery that marlene hides and then reveals belligerent and evasive josef von sternberg chose to ignore his illegitimate birth in austria deprived new york childhood abusive father and lack of education the director who strutted onto the set in a turban riding breeches or a silk robe embraced his new persona as a world traveller collected modern art drove a rolls royce and earned three times as much as the president von sternberg traces the choices that carried the unique director from poverty in vienna to power in hollywood including his eventual ostracism in japan historian john baxter reveals an artist few people knew the aesthete who transformed marlene dietrich into an international star whose ambivalent sexuality and contradictory allure on screen reflected an off screen romance with the director in his classic films the blue angel 1930 morocco 1930 and blonde venus 1932 von sternberg showcased his trademark visual style and revolutionary representations of sexuality drawing on firsthand conversations with von sternberg and his son von sternberg breaks past the classic hollywood caricature to demystify and humanize this legendary director
