there is no denying the fact that the elt world has changed drastically from the teacher oriented to a more learner oriented one unfortunately india is too slow to this change barring a few educational institutions we continue to carry on with the old and outdated methods and materials english is still taught here as a content subject rather than a language subject no doubt the shift is not easy to achieve in fact it is not as much a change in materials as a change in the total outlook and behaviour it implies looking at language from a whole new perspective it is against this backdrop that the present book has been written it aims at providing an insight into existing language teaching in india it discusses at length all the issues related to the indian curriculum problems that are likely to be faced by teachers students and curriculum framers in adopting this method are discussed thread bare and proper solutions provided it is hoped that the book will be of great help to researchers scholars and syllabus framers besides being a reference book for students of english language and linguistics course planning and development in the context of current theories of language learning this thoroughly revised and updated volume offers comprehensive coverage of the major and subsidiary fields of linguistic study
