swiss diploma thesis from the year 2004 in the subject didactics for the subject english literature works grade summa cum laude university of fribourg philosophical faculty course memoire language english abstract in may 1916 f scott fitzgerald sent the manuscript of his first novel to charles scribner s sons the first title fitzgerald gave to this novel was the romantic egotist scribner rejected the manuscript claiming that it was poorly organised and lacked a conclusion but they encouraged him to revise and resubmit the manuscript of what was later to become this side of paradise a tremendously successful novel in 1918 fitzgerald sent a hurriedly revised version of the novel which he was still calling the romantic egotist back to scribner s he had not taken the trouble to work over it carefully because he was convinced that he was going to die in the war the manuscript was again rejected nevertheless fitzgerald decided to completely rewrite the story of the romantic egotist after being discharged from the army in 1919 he shortened the original manuscript considerably and reorganised the whole novel which had now acquired the working title the education of a personage² in july 1919 he wrote to maxwell perkins a scribner s editor who believed in fitzgerald s literary talent that the new draft was in no sense a revision of the ill fated romantic egotist | 155 although he admitted that it contained much material from the rejected manuscript | 156 what made the new draft so much better in the eyes of his publisher who finally accepted the novel and published it as this side of paradise in march 1920 was the sum of fitzgerald s many this time careful revisions this book is about a brief resum of the major critical responses received by scott and proves the fact that he still needs a wider critical attention to have a deeper insight of his novels at the moment his raj quartet is the only work that has received extensive critical attention the generally accepted verdict that the raj quartet is scotts greatest achievement is confirmed by the fact that it has aroused considerable interest among critics since its publication its position of acknowledged greatness therefore certainly demands a reference to various critical responses to it john mellors for instance considers it important because by evoking the final episode in the long and passionate affaire between british and india it contains something of all the issues scott wants to raise justice responsibility political expediency law and order sex and race pride and prejudice love and loyalty intended for undergraduate and high school students with references primarily to book length works this book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the east and the west in american literature the study focuses on four novels mornings in jenin falling man the reluctant fundamentalist and riyah al janna the wind of paradise to discuss how the literature reflects on middle eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the new east it treats the orient as a moving body and takes edward said s orientalism into account also showing post orientalism or the new east as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics militarism and post colonial ideology the book explains and divides the middle east into two parts the arab islamic middle east and the non arab islamic middle east it highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the east as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political regional and religious changes that have shaken it this pictorial autobiography of scott and zelda fitzgerald documents two lives that have become legendary the book draws almost entirely from the scrapbooks and photograph albums that the fitzgeralds scrupulously kept as their personal record and provides a wealth of illustrative material not previously available minnesota a photograph of the country club in montgomery alabama where the two met reviews of this side of paradise poems to the couple from ring lardner snapshots of their trips abroad fitzgerald s careful accounting of his earnings a photograph of the house on long island where the great gatsby was conceived postcards with fitzgerald s drawings for his daughter these rare photographs and memorabilia combine into a narrative augmented by selections from scott s and zelda s own writings conveying the spirit of particular moments in their lives

includes music
