documents the development of the Cambridge ESOL certificates in English language skills. CELF is a suite of modular examinations first offered in 2002 as a context for how CELF was conceived, developed, constructed, validated, and managed. The book traces the history of exams which have influenced CELF: the Royal Society of Arts RSA, later UCLES, University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate, Communicative Use of English as a Foreign Language Examinations, CUEFL was one such influence as were the certificates in communication skills in English CCSE. These exams being a development of the CUEFL, the University of Oxford Delegacy of Local Examinations, UOLE Examinations taken over by UCLES in 1995 were a further influence on CELF. Taking a rights-based approach, this comprehensive study develops a conceptual framework and a definitive set of holistic indicators for monitoring the well-being of children in South Africa. Taking cues from the child rights focus of the South African constitution, it is made clear that it is not just the state of the children that is important to measure but also the contexts within which the children grow and develop. Providing practical tools for policy makers to assess the effectiveness of child-based policies and interventions, this practical work addresses a wide range of domains: child poverty, HIV and AIDS, education, mental health and disability, abuse and neglect, the justice system, and children affected by the worst forms of labor.
