study of church and state in the united states is incredibly complex scholars working in this area have backgrounds in law religious studies history theology and politics among other fields historically they have focused on particular angles or dimensions of the church state relationship because the field is so vast the results have mostly been monographs that focus only on narrow cross sections of the field and the few works that do aim to give larger perspectives are reference works of factual compendia which offer little or no analysis the oxford handbook of church and state in the united states fills this gap presenting an extensive multidimensional overview of the field twenty one essays offer a scholarly look at the intricacies and past and current debates that frame the american system of church and state within five main areas history law theology philosophy politics and sociology these essays provide factual accounts but also address issues problems debates controversies and where appropriate suggest resolutions they also offer analysis of the range of interpretations of the subject offered by various american scholars this handbook is an invaluable resource for the study of church state relations in the united states the cold war shaped the world we live in today its politics economics and military affairs this book shows how the globalization of the cold war during the last century created the foundations for most of the key conflicts we see today including the war on terror it focuses on how the third world policies of the two twentieth century superpowers the united states and the soviet union gave rise to resentments and resistance that in the end helped topple one superpower and still seriously challenge the other ranging from china to indonesia iran ethiopia angola cuba and nicaragua it provides a truly global perspective on the cold war and by exploring both the development of interventionist ideologies and the revolutionary movements that confronted interventions the book links the past with the present in ways that no other major work on the cold war era has succeeded in doing it is my sincere desire in this writing to somehow inspire action by those who read it at this writing our nation teeters on the edge of a knife elements of destruction from within i feel have never been so strong in america s history we are i fear one step from losing the rights and freedoms provided to us by our founding fathers i see the very fabric of our constitution under attack by a government where all power lies in the coercive efforts of the few or just one this situation should scare any red blooded american and stir up a righteous anger toward it are we to become a nation run by despotic rulers where the common man is just a subject or a country of nation states similar to that of old europe where we are red versus blue may god forbid here i will attempt to give justice to the subjects covered my goal is not just to state facts and figures although these are included but to draw out and put forward the wisdom of those great men and women who founded this country and wrote its governing edicts i have found that seldom will a person take the time and put forth the effort to investigate for themselves what really is the truth i am not judging here as i was guilty of the same problem but what i have found out over the years since i took charge of my own inputs is truth is truth and can never be untruth no matter what the subject when i look at our great nation today i wonder if what it has to offer those who immigrate to it has not diminished is there truly an offering of real freedoms rights and opportunities or is this just smoke and mirrors with the reality being that our nation is headed toward the problems that many are trying to get away from america is quickly losing its grip on the constitutional framework it was built upon our freedoms demand that we all do our part to reestablish it the question remains will complacency prevail or will america wake up choose
