this volume maps the international academic debate on secularity it places seminal contributions from within western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into english the volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions the collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse when speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of western norms ideas and concepts it is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references these references are not evenly distributed the development in the west is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves but the references are not completely unidirectional we also present texts from europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references
