human-centered. This isn't just an abstract concept; it's reflected in the art of the period. Compare, for instance, a medieval religious icon with a Renaissance portrait. The medieval icon emphasizes spiritual qualities, while the Renaissance portrait focuses on the individual's physical likeness and personality. This change reflects a fundamental shift in values and worldview. Visual: A comparison image of a medieval religious icon next to a Renaissance portrait would be extremely effective here. Another example is the exploration of Classical Greece. Fiero doesn't just discuss philosophy; she shows how it manifests in architecture (the Parthenon), sculpture, classical statues, and drama (Greek tragedies). By examining these diverse expressions of Greek culture, you gain a much richer understanding of their values and beliefs.
