who or what is god in this very short introduction john bowker considers questions like these exploring how the major religions interpret the idea of god and have established their own distinctive beliefs about his existence bowker shows how and why our understanding of god continues to evolve

the new york times bestseller in god reza aslan sheds new light on mankind s relationship with the divine and challenges our perspective on the history of faith and the birth of religion from the origins of spiritual thought to the concept of an active engaged divine presence that underlies all creation aslan examines how the idea of god arose in human evolution was gradually personalized endowed with human traits and emotions and eventually transformed into a single divine personality the god known today by such names as yahweh father and allah bold wide ranging and provocative god challenges everything we thought we knew about the origins of religious belief and with it our relationship with life and death with the natural and spiritual worlds and our understanding of the very essence of human existence bishop fulton sheen explains it all bishop sheen shows that christianity makes good sense even to nonbelievers indeed christianity alone can explain goodness and evil in the world it alone makes sense of our impulses to love and sacrifice and our failures to do so your god is too small way too small what if god is not a human like personal being but the god beyond god of the christian mystical traditions what if god is the ultimate reality beyond all beings including beyond all divine beings indeed beyond all being it s a mind bending idea speaking of god as a human like personal being is much easier but people who care about the deepest mystical understandings of god within our traditions need to make the effort to speak about the god beyond god despite the difficulties this book makes the attempt to speak of the god beyond god in the language of the sermon using metaphor and potent imagery tuned to the existential intensities of human life the god beyond god is closer to us than our jugular veins vividly present in every moment of our lives these sermons are practical and moving and they also resonate with the most rigorous theological understandings of ultimate reality their deconstruction of our convenient fantasies about a divine being make these sermons emotionally intense and perhaps not suitable for beginners in the journey of faith but veteran believers can breathe deeply in the air of these meditations relaxing into the bliss of engaging ultimate reality without delusions without deflections and without controlling the object of our worship
