explores how teachings of the church fathers can be applied today despite the differences in our intellectual and ecclesial environments

this volume offers christian spiritual instructors a language for the soul uncovered from the storehouses of christianity's ancient living spiritual tradition that language describes the deep soul movements that unfold in the interior life of believers in response to the divine invitation it presents an accessible language of the soul for use in today's professional educational ministerial and everyday life situations the end product is an experiential dictionary comprised of sixty word concepts which name and explore the inward human reactions to the whispering of god's spirit those reactions result from inward desires that lead to the embrace of faith the quest for consecration and the journey of discipleship nurturing these intra personal choices and commitments is the central task of christian ministry but many faith instructors remain unaware of these critical inner life processes more than other resources available today this experiential dictionary informs enriches and intensifies the spiritual journeys of genuine disciples and seekers the volume is tailored for seminaries churches schools and community settings it has application to the training of ministry leaders the instruction of believers and in supporting the growing number of secular mystics who are open to merging their journeys of self discovery with the quest for christ discovery examines what theological reading is and how it shapes the interpretation of biblical text through explicit focus on the reader

this book provides an exegetical theological rhetorical paradigm the christ oriented approach lk 24 27 44 that facilitates accuracy effectiveness and practicality in preaching the new testament use of the old in providing a practical expository model and sermon preparation evaluation principles this work moves beyond the level of theory into the realm of praxis and will thus appeal to practitioners as well as to academics how did we get from scripture to creed historical criticism has revealed a gap between scripture and the mainstream doctrines that define christianity today not the least of these are the trinity and two natures of christ widely accepted since the fifth century but unfounded in historical readings of scripture how did these dogmas become so integral to the faith in the first place frances m young tackles this monumental question in a culmination of decades of biblical and patristic research the first of two volumes exploring the emergence of doctrine in the early church scripture the genesis of doctrine reframes the relationship between scripture and doctrine according to the intellectual context of the first few centuries ce young situates the early christians biblical hermeneutic within the context of greco roman learning without espousing historical relativism ultimately young argues that the scriptural canon and the rule of faith emerged concurrently in the early church and both were received as apostolic the perceived gap between the two may in fact be the product of our modern assumptions rather than an ancient reality nuanced and ecumenical scripture the genesis of doctrine explores early christians biblical hermeneutic with an eye toward how we interpret the bible today young s magisterial study holds widespread implications for not only patristics but also exegesis and systematic theology buschart and eilers identify six critical areas scripture theology worship spirituality mission and culture where contemporary christians are retrieving aspects of our christian past for life and thought today the result is a fascinating tour and wise reflection on how christians might receive employ and transmit the treasures of their past
