the book comprises two parts part i deals with the socio historical aspects of family of the vedic seer bharadvaja and part ii discusses the significant contribution the family has made to the various fields of indian culture gods sages and kings presents a remarkable accumulation of evidence pointing to the existence of a common spiritual culture in the ancient world from which present civilization may be more of a decline than an advance the book is based upon new interpretation of the ancient vedic teachings of india and brings out many new insights from this unique source often neglected and misinterpreted in the west in addition it dicussses recent archaeological discoveries in india whose implications are now only beginning to emerge
