god s super apostles provides a concise entry level overview of the key teachings and practices of the new apostolic reformation nar movement this is a key resource in grasping the significance of this global confusing and controversial movement

do god s prophets and apostles walk the earth today many popular teachers say yes including bill johnson from bethel church redding california mike bickle from the international house of prayer kansas city missouri and rick joyner from morningstar ministries fort mill south carolina but when examined in the light of scripture their teachings about prophets and apostles fall short whether you know it or not you ve probably encountered the fast growing religious movement involving these and other teachers the new apostolic reformation the new apostolic reformation is led by men and women who claim to be modern day prophets and apostles they seek to bring god's kingdom to earth through their new revelations miraculous powers and novel practices like treasure hunting sozo ministry 24/7 prayer rooms and schools of supernatural ministry some groups embrace all of these others only some designed for individuals or groups this study guide used with the full length companion book god's super apostles will help you understand this bewildering movement you'll learn what new apostolic reformation leaders teach about topics like apostles prophets spiritual warfare demons and miracles you'll learn how their teachings about these topics deviate from historic pentecostal and charismatic teachings most importantly you'll learn how to respond to their teachings with scripture it will also guide you in developing personal strategies for countering the new apostolic reformation's growing influence editorial reviews for god's super apostles in two recent books r douglas geivett and holly pivec provide a balanced biblical critique of the new apostolic reformation both books are well written fairly argued and amply documented as a classical pentecostal i see brothers and sisters among leaders and followers of the new apostolic reformation chances are you your family or your church has heard of nar's doctrines or have been influenced by them with r douglas geivett and holly pivec i believe that nar doctrines are not true because unbiblical and unhelpful because not true george p wood executive editor assemblies of god publications general council of the assemblies of god god's super apostles is a clear and winsome work that provides just the right depth of examination and that comes to clear and biblical conclusions tim challies author and blogger at challies.com endorsements for god's super apostles given the explosion of the apostolic movements god's super apostles represents a concise and valuable survey of what is happening around the globe geivett and pivec provide insightful biblical and historical analyses which are useful for those wanting to understand these sometimes bewildering movements especially beneficial are the distinctions the authors make between the teachings of the historic pentecostal churches and the more recent new apostolic reformation views of such leaders as c peter wagner and others vinson synan dean emeritus regent university school of divinity the authors clearly and systematically describe the movement's origins and outworkings and they offer a thoughtful balanced and biblical counterpoint to its many errors and excesses their work is eminently practical desperately needed and long overdue paul carden executive director the center for apologetics research in leading god's people richard bondi discusses the risky business of exercising true pastoral leadership he recognizes that leaders who live only at the edge of a community can become detached from their community and unable to lead while those who commandeer the center can end up protecting its interests from dangerous opportunities at the edge bondi thus engages in critical reflection on the church's mission to increase love for god and neighbor without the leader becoming paralyzed at either extreme vivid stories of men and women in real life situations are interwoven throughout to demonstrate the temptation to play it safe at the risk of faithful leadership these stories provide a language for facing morally difficult pastoral situations and offer thought provoking ethical reflection instead of supplying easy answers bondi draws from current work in narrative theology and character ethics to help develop an ethics for the practice of ministry among bondi s examples of transforming and transformative leadership are the apostle paul martin luther king jr and alan boesak such leaders call us to become different kinds of people in order to embody the truth of the christian story in addition to telling other great stories they all told the story of christ an gave a destination to restless hearts how they did so and how others might do so as well is the story of the moral leader the leader who stands at the edge of the community where change and challenge occur from back cover
