the purpose of the letter to the ephesians is unknown the book suggests that the purpose of ephesians is about missions and being missional the author of ephesians committed the task of missions to the church the author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of god the redemptive plan oikonomia of god consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of israel the mission of christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church the term missional has been used ambiguously the existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of ephesians the mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of eph 1 3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of eph 4 6 the author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church he intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church the mission of the church has been grounded in the great commission the missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in eph 4 6 is it feasible to speak of a moore school of biblical theology the biblical theology program at moore theological college can be traced back to donald robinson one unique contribution of robinson to moore s program was his distinction theology concerning the role of israel in redemption history as his attempt at providing an alternative to dispensationalism and covenant theology by examining robinson s view of jew and gentile in the new testament church the reciprocal role of the gospel going forth from jewish christians to the gentiles and back to unbelieving jews to fulfill the rom 11 promise so all israel shall be saved and robinson s eschatological concept of both jew and gentile forming a new man and by tracing how his view has been affirmed revised rejected or ignored by biblical theologians at moore college who were influenced by or who followed robinson including graeme goldsworthy lionel windsor d broughton knox and william dumbrell this book seeks to clarify the reception of robinson s legacy at moore college as well as offer an assessment on the plausibility of a distinct moore school of biblical theology biblical eschatology provides what is not found in any other single volume on eschatology it analyzes all the major eschatological passages including the olivet discourse and the book of revelation issues including the second coming of christ the millennium the rapture and antichrist and positions including all the major views of the millennium in a clear but not superficial way the book concludes with a chapter showing how eschatology is relevant for our lives biblical eschatology makes understanding eschatology easier by including chapters on how to interpret prophecy and apocalyptic literature by showing the history of eschatological thought and by placing eschatology in the context of the bible s overall story line and structure clarity and understanding are enhanced by the use of comparative tables and appendices subject and scripture indexes are included the book interacts with the best of evangelical and reformed scholarship and the extensive bibliography which includes the web addresses of many online resources provides an excellent source for the reader s further study this is a perfect resource for intelligent christians including pastors students and teachers who desire to understand eschatology and to see how it fits together with the rest of the bible in biblical themes john p davis seeks to present a overview of themes that are central to biblical theology in scripture god has chosen to reveal the glory of the triune god through the person and work of jesus christ the revelation of god in and through jesus christ is the interpretive fulcrum for all of scripture this summary intends to present an example of biblical theology in which the themes of creation consummation corruption covenant and church find their meaning and significance in the person and work of jesus christ this will go down as graeme goldsworthy s magnum opus what a gift to the church it is the busy pastor and hungry layman will find it a gold mine of biblical thought and exegesis terry allen pastor sandy beach baptist church nsw australia graeme goldsworthy invites us to reckon with the differing historical and cultural distances of texts from ourselves when thinking about the application of the scriptures in our own lives throughout goldsworthy carefully explores major biblical themes and the crucial transitions that occur in the course of biblical history the book comprises four sections the word of god the being of god the doing of god the people of god each chapter ends with a section summarizing it and offering practical hermeneutical implications as goldsworthy writes the exposition of any text is incomplete until we understand its development from its historical theological origins through to its fulfilment in christ preaching survey of the year s best books for preachers the appeal of biblical theology is that it provides a big picture that makes sense of the diversity of biblical literature through the lens of biblical theology the bible ceases to be a mass of unconnected texts but takes shape as a unified metanarrative connecting the story of israel with that of jesus it presents the whole scene of god s revelation as one mighty plan of salvation for fifty years graeme goldsworthy has been refining his understanding of biblical theology through his experiences as a student pastor and teacher in this valuable complement to his gospel centered hermeneutics goldsworthy defends and refines the rationale for his approach drawing especially on the work of australian biblical scholar donald robinson graeme goldsworthy explores the reality of god the ministry of jesus christ and our experience of being his redeemed people as the grounds for prayer which he defines as talking to god while there are many books on hermeneutics graeme goldsworthy s perception is that evangelical contributions often do not give sufficient attention to the vital relationship between hermeneutics and theology both systematic and biblical in gospel centered hermeneutics goldsworthy moves beyond a reiteration of the usual arguments to concentrate on the theological questions of presuppositions and the implications of the christian gospel for hermeneutics in doing so he brings fresh perspectives on some well worn pathways part i examines the foundations and presuppositions of evangelical belief particularly with regard to biblical interpretation part ii offers a selective overview of important hermeneutical developments from the sub apostolic age to the present as a means of identifying some significant influences that have been alien to the gospel part iii evaluates ways and means of reconstructing truly gospel centered hermeneutics goldsworthy s aim throughout is to commend the much neglected role of biblical theology in hermeneutical practice with pastoral concern for the people of god as they read interpret and seek to live by his written word while strong gospel centered preaching abounds many christian pastors and lay preachers find it difficult to preach meaningfully from the old testament this practical handbook offers help graeme goldsworthy teaches the basics of preaching the whole bible in a consistently christ centered way goldsworthy first examines the bible biblical theology and preaching and shows how they relate in the preparation of christ centered sermons he then applies the biblical theological method to the various types of literature found in the bible drawing out their contributions to expository preaching focused on the person and work of christ clear complete and immediately applicable this volume will become a fundamental text for teachers pastors and students preparing for ministry
