arthur sullivan is best known as w s gilbert's collaborator in the savoy operas however sullivan was far from being simply a composer of light operettas at the height of his fame and popularity in late victorian britain sullivan was regarded as the nation's leading composer of sacred oratorios on a par with Mendelssohn and Brahms yet despite his contemporary popularity and enduring legacy little attention has been given to Sullivan's sacred work. The last twenty years have seen a considerable revival of interest in and critical appreciation for this aspect of Sullivan's work. Lost Chords and Christian Soldiers provides the first detailed comprehensive critical study and review of Sullivan's church and sacred music as well as exploring issues of repertoire and ecclesiology involved in these and other formative influences and experiences. Consideration will be given to how far Sullivan's own personal beliefs and faith influenced his settings of sacred texts and the extent to which his own spiritual and theological leaning are expressed in his choice of material and style of setting. Sullivan's motivation in setting religious texts will be probed and comparison will be made with the motivation, output and approach of his closest contemporaries in this field, most notably Stainer.

introduces and explains church music and congregational singing for beginners. Music is an essential element in Anglican worship; in fact the Hymnal 1982 is used in virtually every Episcopal service of worship that involves singing while most parishioners participate in music making at some level such as singing hymns or common responses. Fewer people might understand the specific genres that comprise the music of an Episcopal worship service or the liturgical meaning behind each selection. This book provides a more in-depth understanding of this rich and complex tradition discussing the history and evolution of music within the Episcopal church including its Anglican roots. This book is designed to help clarify and simplify the importance of hymn singing and service music in Episcopal worship as well as explain the history, structure and content of the Hymnal 1982 making at some level such as singing hymns or common responses fewer people might understand the specific genres that comprise the music of an Episcopal worship service or the liturgical meaning behind each selection. These compositions are collaborations based on texts and tunes from a variety of sources including the Bible, the 1940 Episcopal Hymnal, George Herbert, Thomas Tallis and others arranged for the Mountain Dulcimer. These renditions provide traditional repertoire for individuals, house churches and congregations without an organ as well as a musical change of pace they can be sung by soloists, choirs and congregations alike. Written in standard notation and tablature in DAD tuning.
