winner of the 2013 richard j finneran award society for textual scholarship outstanding academic title choice his name is percy bysshe shelley and he is the author of a poetical work entitled Alastor or the Spirit of Solitude with these words the radical journalist and poet Leigh Hunt announced his discovery in 1816 of an extraordinary talent within a new school of poetry rising of late the third volume of the acclaimed edition of the complete poetry of Percy Bysshe Shelley includes Alastor one of Shelley's first major works and all the poems that Shelley completed for either private circulation or publication during the turbulent years from 1814 to March 1818 Hymn to Intellectual Beauty Mont Blanc Laon and Cythna as well as shorter pieces such as his most famous sonnet Ozymandias it was during these years that Shelley already an accomplished and practiced poet with three volumes of published verse authored two major volumes earned international recognition and became part of the circle that was later called the younger romantics as with previous volumes extensive discussions of the poems composition influences publication circulation reception and critical history accompany detailed records of textual variants for each work among the appendixes are Mary W. Shelley's 1839 notes on the poems for these years a table of the forty-two revisions made to Laon and Cythna for its reissue as The Revolt of Islam and Shelley's errata list for the same it is in the works included in this volume that the recognizable and characteristic voice of Shelley emerges unmistakable consistent and vital

Giacomo Leopardi 1798–1837 and Percy Bysshe Shelley 1792–1822 crossed paths during their lifetimes and though they never met the legacy of their work betrays a shared destiny as prominent figures who challenged and contributed to the romantic debate Leopardi and Shelley hold important roles in the history of their respective national literatures but paradoxically experienced a controversial and delayed reception outside their native lands Cerimonia's wide-ranging study brings together these two poets for the first time for an exploration of their afterlives through a close reading of hitherto unstudied translations this intriguing journey tells the story from its origins of the two poets critical fortune and examines their position in the cultural debates of the nineteenth century in disputes regarding translation theories and practices and shows the configuration of their identities as we understand their legacy today

The present volume is a corpus-based study of the occurrence variation and change in the use of English adjective pairs in ic and ical over several centuries the study involves the analysis of large multi-million word corpora representing the English language at various stages it examines the nature of competition between the two affixes what kind of rivalry existed what kinds of words entered into competition and in what ways the rivalry was resolved the book presents close studies of six notably differentiated ic/ical adjective pairs namely classic/classical comic/comical economic/economical electric/electrical historic/historical and magic/magical as well as commentaries on some 40 other ic/ical pairs which manifest different types of shifts in use through history it also includes critical discussion of general perceptions on and approaches to the practical use of corpora stressing the importance of close and careful study of the materials under analysis it further emphasises the value of consulting a variety of sources alongside corpora including dictionaries and language usage manuals this volume is of interest to language scholars in many fields including corpus linguistics diachronic linguistics semantic change lexicology and word formation
