in october 1835 samuel burrows was slowly dying suffering from liver disease the 63 year old knew he had little time left to confess his sins the reverend william clarke offered burrows some religious guidance so he could attempt to salvage burrows s soul before the eyes of god for most of the twentieth century modernist viewers dismissed the architectural ornament of louis h sullivan 1856 1924 and the majority of his theoretical writings as emotional outbursts of an outmoded romanticism in this study lauren weingarden reveals sullivan s eloquent articulation of nineteenth century romantic practices literary linguistic aesthetic spiritual and nationalistic and thus rescues sullivan and his legacy from the narrow role imposed on him as a pioneer of twentieth century modernism using three interpretive models discourse theory poststructural semiotic analysis and a pragmatic concept of sign functions she restores the integrity of sullivan s artistic choices and his historical position as a culminating figure within nineteenth century romanticism by giving equal weight to louis sullivan s writings and designs weingarden shows how he translated both ruskin s tenets of gothic naturalism and whitman s poetry of the american landscape into elemental structural forms and organic ornamentation viewed as a site where various romantic discourses converged sullivan s oeuvre demands a cross disciplinary exploration of each discursive practice and its rules of accumulation exclusion reactivation the overarching theme of this study is the interrogation and restitution of those foucauldian rules that enabled sullivan to articulate architecture as a pictorial mode of landscape art which he considered co equal with the spiritual and didactic functions of landscape poetry
