the politics of identity in latin american censuses contributes new and original perspectives to existing discussions about the shaping of multiculturalist ideology in latin america its interweaving with the cultural politics of neoliberalism and the relation between ethnic identification resurgence and economic globalization scrutinising national censuses across the continent the studies included in this volume reveal clear relationships between censuses nation building and government projects but also strong and determinant connections between domestic and supra national spheres the contributors to this volume open provocative avenues of research on latin american societies by demonstrating how in the realm of identity politics supra national institutions and normativity socialise national census bureaus in a way that largely annuls ideological differences between regional governments this book was originally published as a special issue of the journal of iberian and latin american research the print edition is available as a set of three volumes 9789004393219 this monograph explores the social constructs surrounding artistic production in early modern iberia through the lenses of gender and class by examining the rarely considered contribution of creative women in spain and portugal between 1550 and 1700 using the life stage framework popular in texts of the period and drawing on a broad spectrum of materials including conduct guidebooks treatises and conventional rules this book examines the constraints imposed by gender related social structures through microhistories of nuns married and unmarried women the text spans class boundaries in its analysis of the work of painters engravers and sculptors many of whom have until now eluded scholarly attention in english language publications an extensive bibliography promotes new avenues of inquiry into women s contributions to the visual arts of the period this book will be of interest to scholars working in art history gender studies women s history early modern iberian studies and renaissance studies en el presente estudio se somete a una reflexión detenida la teoría general de la partición de la herencia bajo la perspectiva de la partición convencional en verdad este tipo de partición presenta una doble naturaleza es partición pero es también contrato lo que obliga sin duda a la aplicación de las normas generales de la primera pero también puede plantear o cuestionar la vigencia de la normativa propia de los contratos sobre todo cabría la duda si como es usual los interesados celebran con ocasión de la partición otros contratos que estiman convenientes para el mejor éxito de la finalidad de aquella como pudieran ser las transacciones los actos de disposición y de renuncia a los derechos concedidos la cesión de los mismos a otros coherederos la modificación de las cuotas hereditarias la ejecución de un testamento revocado el resultado obtenido viene a llenar una laguna doctrinal pues son pocos los estudios que han abordado hasta ahora la partición contractual en derecho común español e incluso en otros ordenamientos la investigación aquí plasmada por lo demás puede orientar en su tarea a los operadores jurídicos que tengan que enfrentarse con la difícil y frecuente realidad de la en España parte del debate público y de las investigaciones más recientes coinciden en la peligrosidad del colectivo juvenil musulmán señalado como un problema al que se enfrentará la sociedad en el futuro más próximo. Esta obra surge como oposición y crítica a estos debates que ejemplificando la realidad sociocultural poco o nada revelan sobre las problemáticas y aspiraciones de los jóvenes estudiados. Por este motivo el autor ha optado por una etnografía participante que permita conocerlos directamente para de este modo poder escucharlos en sus contextos y sus entornos socioculturales cotidianos. Se pretende así partiendo de sus vidas diarias observar la evolución de un islam cotidiano producto y consecuencia de unas prácticas y maneras de vivir la propia religiosidad contextualizadas. El estudio presenta unos jóvenes musulmanes y españoles plenamente integrados y parte activa de su sociedad donde lejos de representar un nuevo problema podrían aportar soluciones nuevas y originales a los problemas ya existentes.
