Australia's king of young adult fiction, the Australian James reads by his open bedroom window at night other lives and other worlds beckon. One of these worlds is conjured by Old Mr Woodford, a physicist who looks more like an accountant and who constructs a strange black box one day when James slips into the laboratory. He makes a dreadful discovery and learns to master a great power who is the little boy in Mexico who scratches pictures of aeroplanes in the dust. How will the girl caught in a wartime bomb blast be reunited with her parents and why does James sit alone in his island of silence with out-of-time? John Marsden has produced a novel that will further enhance his reputation as one of the most successful writers of fiction for teenagers. This is a challenging novel which poses a new question on every page as it draws us into an ever-widening series of mysteries into magical, dangerous worlds in and out of time. Fans of Veronica Roth, Suzanne Collins and John Flanagan will love John Marsden.
