the objective of working for god is first of all to remind all christian workers of the greatness and the glory of the work in which god gives a share it is nothing less than that work of bringing men back to their god at which god finds his highest glory and blessedness as we see that it is god s own work we have to work out that he works it through us that in our doing it his glory rests on us and we glorify him we shall count it our joy to give ourselves to live only and wholly for it working for god at the same time aims to help those who are laboring in vain to find out what may be the cause of such struggles god s work must be done in god s way and in god s power it is spiritual work to be done by spiritual men and women in the power of the holy spirit the more precise our insight into god s word and the more complete our submission to god s laws of work the surer and the richer will be our joy and our reward in it along with this working for god can be a great help for those who have struggled in finding their part in the service of their lord murray and andrews seek to help ones understand that the chief characteristic of the divine life in god and christ is love and its work of blessing men the divine life in us can show itself in no other way they have sought to show that it is god s will that every believer without exception whatever be his position in life gives himself wholly to live and work for god working for god will also focus on teaching the imperative duty the urgent need the divine blessedness of a life given to god s service and to waken within the consciousness of the power that works in them even the spirit and power of christ himself this work by paul mclean is a deep weekly devotional that is both introspective and interactive it is a weekly study as opposed to a daily reading in order to involve the reader on a more contemplative journey into focused biblical issues by use of a weekly instead of a daily study this devotional allows an opportunity to go deeper with god by narrowing the reader s focus on particular biblical principles that impact his or her personal sphere mclean vigorously maintains that bible study deep personal analysis and prayer are critical anchors in weathering any of life s storms while at the same time producing christian growth and maturity they are also the pillars from which growth life balance and fulfillment are achieved this book is interactive through the use of journaling thoughts impressions and messages received through connecting with god s word bible during the week essentially the reader evaluates his or her life by answering in journalistic form pointed and personal life questions mclean believes that prayer and contemplative study play critical roles in the process of hearing from god this devotional can also be used as a study guide for group sharing and personal growth each chapter touches on insights and personal experiences mclean has encountered in his work as a probation officer and from his involvement in prison ministry he discovered that by witnessing the transforming power of jesus christ in the lives of criminal offenders he was changed and shaped by god for a higher purpose do you know why you re here do you know what you re supposed to accomplish your work what you do in this life matters greatly to god whether it is our everyday work or the work of the ministry there are no second class assignments from him in the work book you will find answers to important questions how can i learn to find joy purpose serving the lord is something that is best begun in his immediate presence when a person has served him in his immediate presence and satisfied his heart he may send such a one to go and serve on his behalf serving the lord in his immediate presence consists essentially in worshipping him of the leaders of the church in antioch it was said while they were worshipping the lord and fasting the holy spirit said set apart for me barnabas and saul for the work to which i have called them then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off acts 13 2 3 barnabas and saul were sent out to serve from the presence of the lord to the work to which god had called them they were ministering in his presence when he sent them away to minister on his behalf all service of the lord ought to begin that way serving the lord is invariably tied to resurrection life no one can truly serve the lord without that he the lord of all glory has taken the initiative to bring that one into his service this is so because those who serve him must know death with christ and resurrection with him service is the flow of the life of god and without resurrection life there can be no flow people can do many things in the lord s name but only that which flows from life will last and to have the flow of life there must first of all be death a person will minister in proportion to the extent to which he has died and risen with christ those who spare them selves the hard demands of the cross will find that they have also spared themselves the ministry of life the extent to which a person surrenders himself to death to the world and the flesh is the extent to which that one will know resurrection life and resurrection ministry there can be a work in might and power that is not fully of the holy spirit samson ministered in power although he was out of vital fellowship with the holy god god demands holiness from all who would serve him to his satisfaction finally we want to say that christian work is acceptable in his sight and satisfies his heart only to the extent to which it is in harmony with his will and under his direction every work that is outside his will and direction is not only useless it is an abomination to him too many believers today are doing nothing for the lord they are shy and withdrawn and lack boldness and a clear sense of direction where are those who would dare to step out at his command and take entire villages towns provinces nations and continents for him where are those who would seek great things for him my prayer is that the lord of the harvest should use these messages to raise servants and slaves unto his glorious son and that such will start in his presence and as he directs end in the uttermost parts of the world lord jesus ignore the weaknesses and shortcomings both of these messages and of the human messenger and use them lord for your glory amen

this book is an exposition of jonathan edwards argumentation in his dissertation concerning the end for which god created the world in addition to stating edwards theses regarding god s end and motivation in creation this book identifies and discusses the assumptions of his argumentation analyses and explains its crucial components and explores its philosophical implications these implications include a version of exemplarism i e the nature of god s ideas for creation dispositionalism i e the characteristics of god which explain god s motivation and emanationism i e what god shares of himself with persons who have a living faith in christ these entail a view of idealism i e a view of the ultimate ontological ground of the universe god s temporal nature continuous creationism i e how god sustains creation a version of panentheism i e how god who is infinite is related to creation from which god is absolutely distinct and occasionalism i e the nature of causation of physical events or states of creation these concepts and what they entail constitute a complete metaphysical system providing a thoroughgoing divine action understanding of the foundation of reality for jonathan edwards god s acting according to his plans for his purposes in christ is fundamental to all things were we to have an understanding of how the fundamental concepts of science mathematics and ordinary experience are related in reality to the god who acts for his original ultimate end in creation sustaining the universe while providentially guiding its affairs and working redemption we would have the opportunity to develop these as he had hoped he pointed the way for others to follow
