john philips introduces the marquis de sade s highly original and thoroughly subversive depiction of human sexuality and the philosophical and political thinking that underpins it he shows how though sade s work continues to shock it can also be seen as the logical conclusion of eighteenth century materialism as the only writer of his time who dared to put the body at the centre of philosophy sade has a unique place in the history of modern thought extracts are taken from the whole range of sade's writings including the 120 days of sodom philosophy in the boudoir juliette and his last will and testament brilliantly original brings cultural and post colonial theory to bear on a wide range of authors with great skill and sensitivity terry eagleton
