tussen 1899 en 1902 woedde in zuid afrika een oorlog tussen de boerenrepublieken en het britse rijk veel nederlanders steunden in die tijd de boeren dit uitte zich in een vloedgolf aan propagandamateriaal om een tegenwicht te bieden aan de britse berichtgeving over de oorlog dit boek bevat een grondige analyse van de nederlandse pro boeren beweging vanaf haar begin in de jaren 1880 kuitenbrouwer gaat in op de organisaties die de banden tussen nederland en zuid afrika trachtten aan te halen en zo belangrijke knooppunten werden in een internationaal netwerk aan de hand van bronnenmateriaal toont de auteur aan dat de propagandacampagne voor de boeren nog lang nagalmde in de twintigste eeuw 0

most western national governments aim to influence individual travel patterns at least to some degree through the spatial planning of residential areas nevertheless the extent to which the characteristics of the built environment influence travel behaviour remains the subject of debate among travel behaviour researchers this work addresses the role of residential self selection an important issue within this debate households may not only adjust their travel behaviour to the built environment where they live but they may also choose a residential location that corresponds to their travel related attitudes the empirical analysis in this thesis is based on data collected through an internet survey and a gps based survey both of which were conducted among homeowners in three centrally located municipalities in the netherlands the study showed that residential self selection has some limited effect on the relationship between distances to activity locations and travel mode use and daily kilometres travelled the results also indicate that the inclusion of attitudes can help to detecting residential self selection provided that studies comply with several preconditions such as the inclusion of the reversed influence of behaviour on attitudes back cover the four decades long ideological based insurgencies and conflict in the kabul river basin krb have seriously hampered the relations and foreign policies of both afghanistan and pakistan consequently it restricts them to solve various bilateral issues including transboundary waters this lack of cooperation over shared water resources is one of the barriers to achieve inclusive and sustainable development additionally it has contributed to the prevailing anarchic situation where each country does what it wants the absence of a formal water sharing mechanism coupled with poor water management practices within both the riparian counties are resulting various flow and administration related challenges moreover these challenges are further exacerbated by regional changes in social political environmental and economic systems the scholarly literature suggests that an analytical transboundary water governance framework is essential to address the challenges of water politicisation and securitisation quality degradation and quantity reduction additionally the literature rarely integrates a a multi level approach b an institutional approach c an inclusive development approach or d accounts for the uses of different types of water and their varied ecosystem services for improved transboundary water governance to enhance human wellbeing and achieve inclusive and sustainable development in the krb this research indicates that it is essential to 1 defrost frozen collaboration 2 bypass border dispute 3 use biodiversity and ecosystem services approach 4 address existing and potential natural and anthropogenic challenges 5 remove contradictions in the policy environment 6 combat resource limits and dependence by promoting collaboration on long term cost effective solutions and 7 enhance knowledge and dialogue on inclusive development
