from the 1880s to the outset of world war i the best known american evangelists held hundreds of revival meetings in cities across canada over a million and a half canadians gathered in churches roller rinks halls theatres factories and even saloons to hear the likes of d l moody sam jones sam small reuben torrey and j wilbur chapman preach a particular brand of american revivalism while at first these meetings were as successful in canada as they were in the us by the second decade of the twentieth century the support of canadian protestant leaders for revivalism had diminished the american evangelists inspired their largely working class listeners by talk of personal salvation but eric crouse argues in an increasingly secular climate this inspiration did not lead them to become church members the canadian church leadership thus came to see the revival experience as costly and ineffective revival is bringing something that is dead back to life much of today s church needs reviving when god comes in an unusual way releasing his presence and power over and above what a church normally experiences we call it a visitation of god every visitation of god should become a habitation of god and become a move of god going beyond that local church into the community city and nation the move of god results in evangelization missions and the fulfilling of the great commission starting in the book of acts and down through the centuries there have been numerous visitations and moves of god we look at church history understanding history helps us correctly interpret the present and prepare for the future we draw inspiration insight and lessons from what god has done in the past by reviewing stories and asking relevant questions what can we learn from church history about revivals visitations and moves of god what does it take for a visitation of god to become a move of god what are signs of a genuine visitation of god how do we steward a revival a visitation and a move of god the latter rain falls just before harvest therefore be patient brethren until the coming of the lord see how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain you also be patient establish your hearts for the coming of the lord is at hand james 5 7 8 in biblical context the early rains were showers that usually came during october november and prepared the ground for the seed the latter rain fell during march april and was necessary for the ripening of the crops before harvest if we believe god is preparing for a mighty endtime outpouring a great visitation and ingathering of harvest before his return then we must get ourselves and our congregations ready for the latter rain of the holy spirit watch our online sunday church service live stream every sunday at 10 30am indian time gmt 5 30 spirit filled anointed worship word and ministry for healing miracles and deliverance youtube youtube com allpeopleschurchbangalore website apcwo org live our other websites and free resources church apcwo org free sermons apcwo org sermons free books apcwo org books daily devotionals apcwo org resources daily devotional jesus christ examiningjesus com bible college apcbiblecollege org e learning apcbiblecollege org elearn counseling chrysalislife org music apcmusic org ministers fellowship pamfi org church app apcwo org app churches apcwo org ministries churches this book may be freely used by individuals small groups churches and ministries for non commercial purposes these are not to be sold and must be distributed freely this work represents the first comparative study of the folk revival movement in anglophone canada and the united states and combines this with discussion of the way folk music intersected with and was structured by conceptions of national affinity and national identity based on original archival research carried out principally in toronto washington and ottawa it is a thematic rather than general study of the movement which has been influenced by various academic disciplines including history musicology and folklore dr gillian mitchell begins with an introduction that provides vital context for the subject by tracing the development of the idea of the folk folklore and folk music since the nineteenth century and how that idea has been applied in the north american context before going on to examine links forged by folksong collectors artists and musicians between folk music and national identity during the early twentieth century with the boom of the revival in the early sixties came the ways in which the movement in both countries proudly promoted a vision of nation that was inclusive pluralistic and eclectic it was a vision which proved compatible with both canada and america enabling both countries to explore a diversity of music without exclusiveness or narrowness of focus it was also closely linked to the idealism of the grassroots political movements of the early 1960s such as integrationist civil rights and the early student movement after 1965 this inclusive vision of nation in folk music began to wane while the celebrations of the centennial in canada led to a re emphasis on the canadianness of canadian folk music the turbulent events in the united states led many ex revivalists to turn away from politics and embrace new identities as introspective singer songwriters many of those who remained interested in traditional folk music styles such as celtic or klezmer music tended to be very insular and conservative in their approach rather than linking their chosen genre to a wider world of folk music however more recent attempts at fusion or world music suggest a return to the eclectic spirit of the 1960s folk revival thus from 1945 to 1980 folk music in canada and america experienced an evolving and complex relationship with the concepts of nation and national identity students will find the book useful as an introduction not only to key themes in the folk revival but also to concepts in the study of national identity and to topics in american and canadian cultural history academic specialists will encounter an alternative perspective from the more general broad approach offered by earlier histories of the folk revival movement pentecostal scholars from four continents here offer constructive theological proposals focusing on the role of the holy spirit in diverse cultural and religious contexts typical pentecostal topics spirit baptism healing and other charisms are interwoven with such themes as post colonialism religious plurality racial diversity and cultural heritage the year 1734 marked the beginning of one of the greatest revivals in the history of north america sparked by the preaching of jonathan edwards the flames of revival spread throughout new england other great awakenings followed across the new nation as god sent spiritual revival through the ministries of george whitefield charles finney dwight l moody billy graham and many others today america is in need of a fresh awakening from god may the captivating stories of what god did in the 18th 19th and 20th centuries inspire you to pray for a new season of great revival
