in uncovering jewish creativity in book iii of the sibylline oracles ashley l bacchi reclaims the importance of the sibyl as a female voice of prophecy and reveals new layers of intertextual references that address political cultural and religious dialogue in second century ptolemaic egypt this investigation stands apart from prior examinations by reorienting the discussion around the desirability of the pseudonym to an issue of gender it questions the impact of identifying the author s message with a female prophetic figure and challenges the previous identification of paraphrased greek oracles and their function within the text verses previously seen as anomalous are transferred from the role of greek subterfuge of jewish identity to offering nuanced support of monotheistic themes laing z matthews is an author and spiritual researcher dedicated to recovering the world s endangered wisdom traditions his work weaves together daoist alchemy comparative mysticism and lived practice exploring how lineages once branded as dangerous heretical or forbidden still carry precise technologies of transformation through his multi volume series esoteric traditions of the world matthews curates and transmits teachings that have survived exile suppression and erasure not as relics but as living currents of spirit from shamanic dreamwalkers in siberia to mystics of the desert from the peyote fires of the native american church to hidden adepts of the kalachakra tantra he gives voice to those who kept the thread alive at great risk matthews writes not as a detached academic but as a practitioner storyteller convinced that true knowledge is lived not merely studied his books invite readers into responsibility to remember to embody and to carry forward wisdom that refuses to bow to power incredibly unique premise where the romance and excitement unfolds and of course the wonderful literature it is rare to find erotic novels these days that stand out in originality series not confined to bedroom heat helicopter chases sex as explosive as the blazing guns of male rivalry rare and unique one would be hard pressed to find an author in this genre that weaves the intricate themes this author does roman wants no harem but the harem relentlessly seeks him he finds himself wedged firmly between three women and a baby shana takes to the hills frightened of roman s dark sexuality but no sooner has she left roman than grieg phoenix a dead demon from shana s past is marking time on roman s doormat out for a war over shana as is marie too whose pregnancy roman still keeps a secret from shana roman i loved owning women then i found my woman but she would never be owned not even by the gods when she leaves me i find myself waging wars over her with her dangerous admirer shana roman scares me in every way and the fear excites me i m brainless in his arms brainless just from thinking about him he makes me navigate so many labyrinthine passages and secret doors that frighten me my body kneels and weeps for him my common sense tells me to flee and i do but will the star crossed lovers manage to stay apart
