excerpt from the retreat from mons by one who shared in it dear general smith dorrien when some few months ago you honoured me by your acceptance of this dedication i had in mind to make a single volume which should trace the course of the war during the period of your command of the second army the unforgettable days from mons to ypres since then i have found that there is one phase of the operations which has gripped the imagination of the public more than any other event of the past two years the retreat from mons it is indeed almost incredible how little the people know of this and how splendidly they respond to the telling of the story but it seems to me that the story can never be told as it should be only those who actually experienced the horror and the splendour of those ten days could hope to tell it and for them the facts are blurred and distorted by the nightmare through which they passed about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
