in the summer of 2020 china and india came near to war the nuclear armed adversaries both massed troops and equipment along their disputed border in eastern ladakh the two sides slugged it out with fists stones and clubs next to a fast flowing himalayan stream resulting in dozens of deaths and injuries many from hypothermia the entire 4 000 kilometre sino indian boundary is disputed in 1962 the two countries fought a short and vicious war that went badly for india and from which nehru never recovered the border called the line of actual control is not marked on any map agreed upon by the two sides it runs through the largely unpopulated and inhospitable high mountains of the himalayas from the 1990s as beijing and new delhi sought to resolve their seemingly intractable border dispute an elaborate system of agreements kept the situation akin to a kettle on a slow boil but the kettle is now boiling over the two rising asian giants both led by strongly nationalistic regimes neither of which wishes to blink first are seeking geopolitical and strategic advantage this timely book explains what is happening on the roof of the world and why that matters for us all
