during the second invasion of jerusalem 597 b c nebuchadnezzar deported an even larger group of judah s upper and middle class citizens to babylon and among this group was a young twenty six year old priest in training named ezekiel this group of jewish captives was placed in the region of tel aviv along a wide canal that links two branches of the euphrates known as the kebar river there they were treated more as colonists than slaves and enjoyed many privileges it was there on the banks of the kebar river that in 593 b c a now thirty old ezekiel received his calling from god ezekiel 1 2 thirty years old is the minimum age that priests are actually allowed to begin serving in the temple numbers 4 13 and so as the lord would have it it was from that place that ezekiel first served the lord by delivering his first prophetic message to his fellow captives in babylon

Paul's first letter to the church at Corinth was written to address the many problems that had cropped up immediately following his founding of the church there during his second missionary journey. Acts 18:18 the believers in Corinth had begun to question Paul's authority as an apostle appointed by Christ. They were also misusing worship, suing each other in court, engaging in all sorts of immorality and even denying that the resurrection of Christ ever took place.

The curriculum produced by the Church of God in Christ is prepared to train and nurture this generation in the faith.
