free sampler from the international bestseller when anna erelle a young journalist goes undercover online to discover how today's most ruthless terrorists use social media to recruit disaffected young women like the girls from Bethnal Green her investigation spins into a harrowing nightmare

the inspiration for the new film profile directed by timur bekmbetov with a screenplay by britt poulton timur bekmbetov and olga kharina a young french journalist s riveting and unprecedented look at how today s most ruthless terrorists use social media and technology to reach disaffected youth witnessed through the undercover investigation that led to her deep involvement with a key member of isis on facebook melodie a twenty year old convert to islam living with her mother and sister in toulouse meets bilel a french born high ranking militant for the islamic state in syria within days bilel falls in love with melodie skypes her repeatedly and adamantly urges her to come to syria marry him and do jihad the honey tongued suitor promises the innocent fatherless young girl a life of material comfort and spiritual purpose but melodie is actually anna erelle a parisian based journalist investigating the recruitment channels of the islamic state whose digital propaganda jihad 2 0 constitutes one of its most formidable and frightening weapons successfully mobilizing increasing numbers of young europeans in this taut and riveting true story erelle chronicles her intense month long relationship with bilel who turns out to be none other than the right hand man of abou bakr al baghadi the self proclaimed caliph of isis impatient for melodie to join him bilel tells her that according to an imam they are already all but married and will be officially when she arrives in syria as she embarks on the final most dangerous stage of her investigation melodie leaves for amsterdam to begin her journey to the middle east but things go terribly wrong a gripping and often harrowing inquiry into the factors that motivate young people to join extremist causes and a shocking exploration of how technology and social media are spreading radicalism in the skin of a jihadist is a riveting page turner that helps us better understand the appeal of extremism and how an islamic militant attempts to brainwash seduce and manipulate a vulnerable young woman twenty year old mélodie a recent convert to islam meets the leader of an isis brigade on facebook in 48 hours he has fallen in love with her calls her every hour urges her to marry him join him in syria in a life of paradise and join his jihad she discovers how isis entraps ordinary people like teenage girls from bethnal green in this authoritative look at the roots of modern terrorism yossef bodansky one of the most respected and best informed experts on radical islamism in the world today pinpoints the troubled region of chechnya as a dangerous and little understood crucible of terror in the struggle between east and west in his number one new york times bestseller bin laden the man who declared war on america published before 9 11 bodansky was among the first to introduce american readers to osama bin laden now in chechen jihad he returns to alert american readers to the lessons to be drawn from the terror campaign in chechnya and its ramifications for the global war on terrorism the final years of u s soviet relations left chechnya a fertile breeding ground for islamic terrorism and in the past decade an uneasy alliance of native chechen separatists and militant jihadists have joined forces to help al qaeda and the greater islamist movement pursue its war against the west as bodansky points out the chechens are professional fighters disciplined and responsible with a combination of skills expertise and character that has made them the most sought after force multipliers in the jihadist movement bodansky traces the secret history of the two chechen wars illuminating how the process of chechenization transformed the fight from a secular nationalist struggle into a jihadist holy war against russia and the secular west and in the most instructive message for western audiences he reveals how the chechen rebellion was eventually crippled by a schism between the jihadists and the chechen people whose nationalist rebellion they had co opted an object lesson in the potential vulnerability of islamist campaigns around the world drawing on mountains of previously unseen intelligence from islamist movements and other military and intelligence sources from throughout the middle east and central asia as well as senior officials in many of the affected nations chechen jihad offers an intimate and startling portrait of the jihadist movement that is astonishing in its detail and chilling in its implications but one that points to a new way forward in the struggle to answer the challenges of international islamist terrorism previously published as in the skin of a jihadist twenty year old mélodie a recent convert to islam meets the leader of an isis brigade on facebook in 48 hours he has fallen in love with her calls her every hour urges her to marry him join him in syria in a life of paradise and join his jihad the international jihadist network of radical islamic terrorist groups is far more extensive than just al qaeda and it has conducted twice as many attacks in the three years since september 11 2001 as it did in the three years prior to that date this addresses the nation s successes and failures on homeland security and calls for stronger more effective strategy for dealing with jihadists including al qaeda the report offers a detailed action plan for neutralizing the international movement at the core of worldwide terrorism the report also describes the nature of the jihadist threat provides comprehensive profiles of the various jihadist groups and offers a rationale for the effort and money that would be needed to make the plan a success the plan presented in the report builds on the recommendations of the 9 11 commission and serves as a road map for winning the war against the jihadists examines al qaeda's evolution and the emergence of the broader global jihadist movement groups affiliated associated or inspired by al qaeda and the threat that they pose to the united states and u s allies and interests the authors conclude by setting out a four pronged strategy to counter the jihadist threat the u s counterintelligence community identifies abu musab al suri as the most important theorist of the global islamic jihad and considers his manifesto to be the most important strategic document produced by al qaida or any jihadi organization in more than a decade but to americans his 1 600 page manuscript largely consists of incomprehensible impenetrable islamic scholarship with this publication defense analyst jim lacey delivers a meaningful distillation of al suri s call to global islamic jihad a work that has been called the mein kampf of the movement this project is sponsored by the united states joint forces command the first of two interrelated security threats is multifaceted inasmuch as it stems from a complex combination of religious political historical cultural social and economic motivational factors caused by the growing predilection for carrying out mass casualty terrorist attacks inside the territories of infidel western countries by clandestine operational cells that are inspired by and sometimes linked to various jihadist networks with a global agenda the second threat is more narrowly technical the widespread fabrication of increasingly sophisticated and destructive improvised explosive devices ieds by those very same jihadist groups these devices if properly constructed are capable of causing extensive human casualties and significant amounts of physical destruction within their respective blast radiuses these dual intersecting threats within the recent european context are examined in an effort to assess what they might portend for the future including within the u s homeland a fascinating examination of the efforts by international jihadists to bring about their grand vision of islamist hegemony in the greater horn of africa region which began with the collaboration between al Qaeda and the national Islamic Front government of Sudan Dr Pirio demonstrates how a faction within Somalia's Islamic Courts Movement with historic ties to al Qaeda came to dominate the Islamic Courts Movement and threaten wider regional insecurity and the expansion of the Middle East conflict into Africa

Subject America entered the global war on terrorism with little understanding of the enemy it faced al Qaeda plays a leading role in the larger movement of global jihad a splinter faction of militant Islamism intent on establishing its vision of strict Islamic rule in the Muslim world through armed action Global Jihadis have spent more than 40 years refining their philosophy gaining experience building their organization and developing plans to reestablish what they see as the only true Islamic state on earth The September 11 2001 9/11 attacks set this plan in motion in the years leading up to and following the 9/11 attacks Global Jihadis have written copiously on their military strategy for creating an Islamic state This paper draws on those writings to examine and explain the mechanisms by which they plan to neutralize the superpower guardian of world order claim land and peoples for Islamic emirates out of the resulting chaos and bring these emirates together to become a true Islamic state Their writings also expose weaknesses in their strategy and this paper explores some of those potential vulnerabilities as well

includes annual numbers

The war of ideas is being fought both within Islamic societies and between some Muslim voices and the West The war of ideas is a struggle between moral claims political philosophies and historical interpretations that compete for assent within a society and across borders like the ideological component of the Cold War the war of ideas is about the fundamental principles of human society from the basis for law and structures of governance to gender relations and the nexus of religion and politics It is a global war the foes have resorted to arms to protect and promote their worldview This book brings together some of the most important voices from different partisan theoretical and religious perspectives to argue and forecast the next phase in the war of ideas

This new book reassesses the presence of Islam in Africa dimensions of terrorism sets out to establish some of the contours of modern terrorism the articles do not provide all of the answers to what is and is not terrorism they are not necessarily of a unified vision of what constitutes terrorism but taken as a group the difficulties of determining its limits and nature are given significant illumination the authors address several major themes within terrorism its definition whether it is a distinct species of political violence or an extension of other forms of activity such as low intensity warfare differing manifestations of terrorism the question of whether it is a new form of the phenomena that has emerged since the end of the cold war to whom the use of the technique is most likely to appeal and the character of persons who implement terror
