free sampler from the international bestseller when anna erelle a young journalist goes undercover online to discover how today's most ruthless terrorists use social media to recruit disaffected young women like the girls from bethnal green her investigation

spins into a harrowing nightmare the inspiration for the new film profile directed by timur bekmambetov with a screenplay by britt poulton timur bekmambetov and olga kharina a young french journalist s riveting and unprecedented look at how today s most ruthless terrorists use social media and technology to reach disaffected youth witnessed through the undercover investigation that led to her deep involvement with a key member of isis on facebook melodie a twenty year old convert to islam living with her mother and sister in toulouse meets bilel a french born high ranking militant for the islamic state in syria within days bilel falls in love with melodie skypes her repeatedly and adamantly urges her to come to syria marry him and do jihad the honey tongued suitor promises the innocent fatherless young girl a life of material comfort and spiritual purpose but melodie is actually anna erelle a parisian based journalist investigating the recruitment channels of the islamic state whose digital propaganda jihad 2 0 constitutes one of its most formidable and frightening weapons successfully mobilizing increasing numbers of young europeans in this taut and riveting true story erelle chronicles her intense month long relationship with bilel who turns out to be none other than the right hand man of abou bakr al baghadi the self proclaimed caliph of isis impatient for melodie to join him bilel tells her that according to an imam they are already all but married and will be officially when she arrives in syria as she embarks on the final most dangerous stage of her investigation melodie leaves for amsterdam to begin her journey to the middle east but things go terribly wrong a gripping and often harrowing inquiry into the factors that motivate young people to join extremist causes and a shocking exploration of how technology and social media are spreading radicalism in the skin of a jihadist is a riveting page turner that helps us better understand the appeal of extremism and how an islamic militant attempts to brainwash seduce and manipulate a vulnerable young woman twenty year old mélodie a recent convert to islam meets the leader of an isis brigade on facebook in 48 hours he has fallen in love with her calls her every hour urges her to marry him join him in syria in a life of paradise and join his jihad she discovers how isis entraps ordinary people like teenage girls from bethnal green explores the nexus formed when malevolent actors access malignant meanswritten for professionals academics and policymakers working at the forefront of counterterrorism efforts jihadists and weapons of mass destruction is an authoritative and comprehensive work addressing the threat of weapons of mass destruction wmd in the hands of jihadists this book conceptually examines the role of communication in global jihad from multiple perspectives the main premise is that communication is so vital to the global jihadist movement today that jihadists will use any communicative tool tactic or approach to impact or transform people and the public at large the author explores how and why the benefits of communication are a huge boon to jihadist operations with jihadists communicating their ideological programs to develop a strong base for undertaking terrorist violence the use of various information and communication systems and platforms by jihadists exemplifies the most recent progress in the relationship between terrorism media and the new information environment for jihadist organizations like isis and al qaeda recruiting new volunteers for the caliphate who are willing to sacrifice their lives for the cause is a top priority based on various conceptual analyses case studies and theoretical applications this book explores the communicative tools tactics and approaches used for this recruitment including narratives propaganda mainstream media social media new information and communication technologies the jihadisphere visual imagery media framing globalization financing networks crime jihad nexuses group communication radicalization social movements fatwas martyrdom videos pop jihad and jihadist nasheeds this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of communication studies political science terrorism and international security islamic studies and cultural studies scholarly analysis of evolving jihadist organisation strategies and operation jihadist militants keep being a global threat many observers suggest that a transformation is likely to happen in their organisation operation mobilisation and recruitment strategies particularly after the territorial decline of the caliphate of the islamic state this volume explores different aspects of the future trajectories of militant jihadism and the prospective transformation of this movement in and around europe the authors analyse the changing jihadist landscape and networks and the societal challenges posed by both returned foreign terrorist fighters and those who have not returned to their countries of origin other topics of discussion are cyber jihadism jihadist financing women s position in and relevance for contemporary jihadism the role of prisons in relation to radicalisation and militancy and the changing theological dynamics based on recent empirical research militant jihadism offers a solid scholarly contribution to various disciplines that study violence terrorism security and extremism examines al Qaeda's evolution and the emergence of the broader global jihadist movement groups affiliated associated or inspired by al Qaeda and the threat that they pose to the United States and U.S. allies and interests the authors conclude by setting out a four pronged strategy to counter the jihadist threat

In this authoritative look at the roots of modern terrorism Yossef Bodansky one of the most respected and best informed experts on radical Islamism in the world today pinpoints the troubled region of Chechnya as a dangerous and little understood crucible of terror in the struggle between East and West in his number one New York Times bestseller Bin Laden: The Man Who Declared War on America published before 9/11 Bodansky was among the first to introduce American readers to Osama bin Laden now in Chechen Jihad he returns to alert American readers to the lessons to be drawn from the terror campaign in Chechnya and its ramifications for the global war on terrorism the final years of U.S. Soviet relations left Chechnya a fertile breeding ground for Islamic terrorism and in the past decade an uneasy alliance of native Chechen separatists and militant jihadists have joined forces to help al Qaeda and the greater Islamist movement pursue its war against the West as Bodansky points out the Chechens are professional fighters disciplined and responsible with a combination of skills expertise and character that has made them the most sought after force multipliers in the jihadist movement Bodansky traces the secret history of the two Chechen wars illuminating how the process of Chechenization transformed the fight from a secular nationalist struggle into a jihadist holy war against Russia and the secular West and in the most instructive message for Western audiences he reveals how the Chechen rebellion was eventually crippled by a schism between the jihadists and the Chechen people whose nationalist rebellion they had co-opted an object lesson in the potential vulnerability of Islamist campaigns around the world drawing on mountains of previously unseen intelligence from Islamist movements and other military and intelligence sources from throughout the Middle East and Central Asia as well as senior officials in many of the affected nations Chechen Jihad offers an intimate and startling portrait of the jihadist movement that is astonishing in its detail and chilling in its implications but one that points to a new way forward in the struggle to answer the challenges of international Islamist terrorism the international jihadist network of radical Islamic terrorist groups is far more extensive than just al Qaeda and it has conducted twice as many attacks in the three years since September 11 2001 as it did in the three years prior to that date this addresses the nation's successes and failures on homeland security and calls for stronger more effective strategy for dealing with jihadists including al Qaeda the report offers a detailed action plan for neutralizing the international movement at the core of worldwide terrorism the report also describes the nature of the jihadist threat provides comprehensive profiles of the various jihadist groups and offers a rationale for the effort and money that would be needed to make the plan a success the plan presented in the report builds on the recommendations of the 9/11 commission and serves as a road map for winning the war against the jihadists previously published as In the Skin of a Jihadist twenty year old Mélodie a recent convert to Islam meets the leader of an ISIS brigade on Facebook in 48 hours he has fallen in love with her calls her every hour urges her to marry him join him in Syria in a life of paradise and join his jihad the first of two interrelated security threats is multifaceted inasmuch as it stems from a complex combination of religious political historical cultural social and economic motivational factors caused by the growing predilection for carrying out mass casualty terrorist attacks inside the territories of infidel western countries by clandestine operational cells that are inspired by and sometimes linked to various jihadist networks with a global agenda the second threat is more narrowly technical the widespread fabrication of increasingly sophisticated and destructive improvised explosive devices (IEDs) by those very same jihadist groups these devices if properly constructed are capable of causing extensive human casualties and significant amounts of physical destruction within their respective blast radii these dual intersecting threats within the recent European context are examined in an effort to assess what they might portend for the future including within the U.S. homeland the U.S. counterintelligence community identifies Abu Musab al Suri as the most important theorist of the global Islamic jihad and considers his manifesto to be the most important strategic document produced by al Qaeda or any jihadi organization in more than a decade but to Americans his 1,600 page manuscript largely consists of incomprehensible impenetrable Islamic scholarship with this publication defense analyst Jim Lacey delivers a meaningful distillation of al Suri's call to global Islamic jihad a work that has been called the Mein Kampf of the movement this project is sponsored by the United States Joint Forces Command a fascinating examination of the efforts by international jihadists to bring about their grand vision of Islamist hegemony in the greater horn of africa region which began with the collaboration between al qaeda and the national islamic front government of sudan dr pirio demonstrates how a faction within somalia s islamic courts movement with historic ties to al qaeda came to dominate the islamic court s movement and threaten wider regional insecurity and the expansion of the middle east conflict into africa this book addresses the jihad movement that created the largest african state of the 19th century the sokoto caliphate existing for 99 years from 1804 until its military defeat by european colonial troops in 1903 the author carves out the entanglements of jihadist ideology and warfare with geographical concepts at africa s periphery of the islamic world geographical knowledge about the boundary between the land of islam and the land of war the pre colonial construction of the muslim and the unbeliever and the transfer of ideas between political elites and mobile actors traders pilgrims slaves soldiers whose reports helped shape new definitions of the african frontier of islam research for this book is based on the study of a very wide range of arabic and west african hausa fulfulde manuscripts their policies reveal the persistent reciprocity of jihadist warfare and territorial statehood of africa and the middle east stephanie zehle is assistant professor jprof of extra european history at kiel university christian albrechts universität her work on african and trans continental history includes research on the history of islam human animal relations and comics in africa subject america entered the global war on terrorism with little understanding of the enemy it faced ai qaeda plays a leading role in the larger movement of global jihad a splinter faction of militant islamism intent on establishing its vision of strict islamic rule in the muslim world through armed action global jihadis have spent more than 40 years refining their philosophy gaining experience building their organization and developing plans to reestablish what they see as the only true islamic state on earth the september 11 2001 9 11 attacks set this plan in motion in the years leading up to and following the 9 11 attacks global jihadis have written copiously on their military strategy for creating an islamic state this paper draws on those writings to examine and explain the mechanisms by which they plan to neutralize the superpower guardian of world order claim land and peoples for islamic emirates out of the resulting chaos and bring these emirates together to become a true islamic state their writings also expose weaknesses in their strategy and this paper explores some of those potential vulnerabilities as well as jihadist cadres begin to rebuild lacey notes that they are turning once again to their original thinkers to justify their actions jacket drawing from a variety of sources this anthology encourages readers to explore the multiple dimensions of islamic terrorism and seeks to promote a better understanding of one of the most complicated and urgent problems facing the world today divided into six parts the book deals with the theological and ideological background of the concept of jihad the policies and organization of al qaeda various policy recommendations for combating terrorism the motivations of suicide bombers the dilemma jihadists pose in western countries and the adoption of classical european and anti semitic myths for political and religious gain in segments of the muslim world with excerpts ranging from works by sayyid qutb to osama bin laden to nonie darwish this book is a must have for anyone interested in or studying islamic terrorism
