seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject english language and literature studies culture and applied geography grade 1 6 university of hannover philosophische fakultät course seminar national identity and its representations in modern british culture 13 entries in the bibliography language english abstract this paper focuses on the multiculturalism vs integration debate in great britain which was aggravated by a speech held by trevor phillips head of the commission for racial equality cre in spring 2004 at first it is necessary to give definitions of the rather vague terms multiculturalism and integration that will be done in chapter two chapter three then introduces four main governmental policies in dealing with multiculturalism and takes a look at their theoretical backgrounds the main part of this paper chapter four deals with the lively multiculturalism vs integration debate in great britain after the major points of phillips speech are presented it is important to give some general facts about multiculturalism in the uk in order to give the discussion a solid basis there have been plenty of reactions towards phillips speech supporters and opponents of his theses have publicly underlined their statements in manifold opportunities it is not possible to hear them all therefore only a relatively small but hopefully well balanced selection can be given finally some own thoughts and ideas will be presented in the conclusion unfortunately most of them can only be causes for thoughts because they again lead to a much wider topic which would be part of a new paper
