the documents in this focus on the mediterranean in the years 1912 to 1914 are grouped in four sections each with an informative introduction the first covers the debate on british policy in the mediterranean which occurred soon after winston churchill became first lord of the admiralty as well as the conversations between britain and france in the years before the start of the great war at both naval and diplomatic levels the second section records the movement of the german battle cruiser goeben and the light cruiser breslau in the days between july 27 and august 14 1914 the escape of the goeben and breslau from the british mediterranean fleet after the declaration of war was the grounds for a court of enquiry and the court martial of rear admiral e c t troubridge which are reported in the third section and the fourth part deals with british naval activity with particular reference to turkey and turkish waters after these two german ships succeeded in reaching the dardanelles

jerry thigpen s study on the history of the combat talon is the first effort to tell the story of this wonderfully capable machine this weapons system has performed virtually every imaginable tactical event in the spectrum of conflict and by any measure is the most versatile c 130 derivative ever produced first modified and sent to southeast asia sea in 1966 to replace theater unconventional warfare uw assets that were limited in both lift capability and speed the talon i quickly adapted to theater uw tasking including infiltration and resupply and psychological warfare operations into north vietnam after spending four years in sea and maturing into a highly respected uw weapons system the joint chief of staff jcs chose the combat talon to lead the night low level raid on the north vietnamese prison camp at son tay despite the outcome of the operation the talon i cemented its reputation as the weapons system of choice for long range clandestine operations in the period following the vietnam war united states air force usaf special operations gradually lost its political and financial support which was graphically demonstrated in the failed desert one mission into iran thanks to congressional supporters like earl hutto of florida and dan daniel of virginia funds for aircraft upgrades and military construction projects materialized to meet the ever increasing threat to our nation under the leadership of such committed hard driven officers as brenci uttaro ferkes meller and thigpen the crew force became the most disciplined in our air force it was capable of penetrating hostile airspace at night in a low level mountainous environment covertly to execute any number of unconventional warfare missions
