contemporary international affairs are largely shaped by widely differing thematic issues and actors such as nation states international institutions ngos and multinational companies obtaining a deeper understanding of these multifaceted themes and actors is crucial for developing a genuine understanding of contemporary international affairs this book provides undergraduate and postgraduate students of global politics and international relations with the necessary knowledge of the forces that shape and dominate our global political economic and social cultural environment the book significantly enhances our understanding of the essentials of contemporary international affairs understanding global politics takes a pragmatic approach to international relations with each chapter being written by an expert in their respective field part i provides the historical background that has led to the current state of world affairs it also provides clear outlines of the major yet often complex theories of international relations part ii is dedicated to the main actors in global politics it discusses actors such as the most important nation states the un eu international organizations ngos and multinational companies part iii considers important contemporary themes and challenges in global politics including non state centered challenges chapters focus on international terrorism energy and climate change issues religious fundamentalism and demographic changes the comprehensive structure of this book makes it particularly viable to students who wish to pursue careers in international organizations diplomacy consultancy the think tank world and the media the russian annexation of crimea was one of the great strategic shocks of the past twenty five years for many in the west moscow s actions in early 2014 marked the end of illusions about cooperation and the return to geopolitical and ideological confrontation russia for so long a peripheral presence had become the central actor in a new global drama in this groundbreaking book renowned scholar bobo lo analyzes the broader context of the crisis by examining the interplay between russia's foreign policy and an increasingly anarchic international environment he argues that moscow's approach to regional and global affairs reflects the tension between two very different worlds the perceptual and the actual the kremlin highlights the decline of the west a resurgent russia and the emergence of a new multipolar order but this idealized view is contradicted by a world disorder that challenges core assumptions about the dominance of great powers and the utility of military might its lesson is that only those states that embrace change will prosper in the twenty first century a russia able to redefine itself as a modern power would exert a critical influence in many areas of international politics but a russia that rests on an outdated sense of entitlement may end up instead as one of the principal casualties of global transformation
