contrary to the thinking of many contemporaries both capitalism and democracy will not last and are to be superceded one day by post capitalism and post democracy the short lived triumph of market capitalism and liberal democracy in the post cold war era does not imply the coming end of systematic ideology of structural oppression or of violent conflict at the rational endpoint of history unfortunately violence does not disappear but only takes a different form of hegemony as it has throughout history the difference is each age has its own form to adjust to so we believe in ours and those before us believed in theirs just as those after us will in theirs in the future of capitalism and democracy peter baofu evaluates how and why capitalism and democracy have failed at the institutional organizational structural cultural systemic cosmological and bio psychological levels in order to synthesize the often conflicting ideals of freedom equality and fraternity broadly defined to include all dimensions of life so much cherished by many minds since the modern era and this is so even if democracy and capitalism have different meanings in different cultures and societies in the end baofu shows that capitalism and democracy hegemonic as they are in the post cold war era are just experiments in history and will not last just as feudalism and aristocracy before them could not
