modern italian historiography has undergone a substantial revision in the last quarter of a century from an almost exclusive focus on the process of nation building the attention of historians has shifted the most innovative research is now devoted to assessing to what extent the cosmopolitan attitude that was evident in the late eighteenth century morphed but did not disappear in the ensuing two centuries the essays in this volume make the case that the age of nations had a profound impact on italian history and contributed to the creation of an italian identity within the framework of well functioning imperial and global networks they also acknowledge that the process of national individualization carried with it a variety of aspects that reconnected italian history to the foreign cultures that were undergoing constant self fashioning cosmopolitan italy in the age of nations transnational visions from the eighteenth to the twentieth century will be of interest to scholars throughout the world and intellectual and transnational historians central to grazia deledda s narrative worlds are the relationships between her characters and the vast landscapes in which they move and act the writer translates and represents her characters her characters emotions and her natural and urban landscapes with a vocabulary that is often related to the visual arts however although her descriptions contain the gradations of modernist painting beginning with impressionism no book length study and with diverse perspectives has thus far investigated deledda s relationship with the visual arts and the resulting painterly aesthetic of her multicolored narratives in this sense grazia deledda's painterly aesthetic provides an articulated literary panorama of deledda's novels and short stories through a discourse that is situated between literature and pictorial art inspired by these two cardinal points the analyses are undertaken by contributors who have a profound awareness of an epochal change and work in different disciplines one year from the centenary of her receipt of the nobel prize the contributors investigate the connections consonances and differences between grazia deledda's oeuvre and other works inside this panorama to verify a possible unity of purpose at the same time they seek to ascertain whether these connections can corroborate and exalt the choices that the sardinian writer made to free herself from the constraints of a hostile environment history has to reorient as the historian and sociologist andre gunder frank observed in the global or globalised age a culture is no longer regarded as a discrete entity but rather as a hybrid formation that interacts with other cultures in an incessant process of multidirectional exchange bringing together eastern and western case studies ranging from the seventeenth to the twenty first centuries this volume reminds historians that to conduct transcultural analyses they need to be alert to the multiple ways comic intents included in which difference is negotiated within contacts and encounters from selective appropriation to rejection or resistance a riveting and dramatic story of two devoted sisters italian citizens who must survive in wwii japan in 1940 when simona is eight and her sister carolina is five their father becomes the cook to the italian ambassador to japan and the family leaves italy for tokyo the girls learn perfect japanese make friends and begin to love life in their new home but soon japan is engaged in a world war in 1943 when all italians in japan are confined to internment camps as enemy aliens papà and the girls are forced to part and simona and carolina embark on a dramatic journey anyone who aids them could be arrested for treason all the sisters have is each other their wits courage and resilience and the hope that they will find people who see them not as the enemy but simply as children trying to survive in this gripping deeply moving story donna jo napoli gives readers an unforgettable and authentic new perspective on world war ii literature review from the year 2011 in the subject literature asia grade 27 30 language italian abstract il mystery è un genere che ha avuto una notevole fortuna in giappone una tradizione fantastica e una criminale erano già presenti nel paese orientale e proprio su queste si sviluppò introdotto massicciamente in giappone agli inizi del periodo meiji 1868 1912 produrrà una vera e propria letteratura poliziesca autoctona sul finire del periodo taishō 1912 1926 il romanzo d'investigazione poiché importato in tutte le sue regole tratti distintivi e formule fu sempre causa di sofferenza per gli scrittori orientali consapevoli del continuo confronto del loro lavoro con il corrispettivo occidentale indiscutibile metro di paragone il presente lavoro si propone di mostrare la nascita e l'evoluzione di un genere che ad oggi può vantare una ricca tradizione gli scrittori giapponesi rivisiteranno con una differente sensibilità il già definito mystery e attraverso una sorta di competizione con i cosiddetti padri del suddetto svilupperanno una grande varietà di forme e un gusto particolare frutto dell'ibridazione tra le differenti culture il risultato sarà la creazione di opere uniche rimaste fino a pochi decenni prima quasi del tutto sconosciute al resto del mondo per scarsità di traduzioni e non certo per minore valore artistico rispetto alle controparti occidentali
