this book examines australia s sporting relationships with the asian region during the interwar period until now australia s sporting relationships with the asian region have been neglected by scholars of australian and asian sports history and the broader field of australia s asian context concentrating on the period of the 1920s and 1930s when sporting relationships between australia and a number of asian nations emerged in a variety of sports this book demonstrates the depth of these previously under examined connections the book challenges and complicates the broader historiography of australia s asian context a historiography that has been strongly influenced by the white australia policy and the pacific war why for example did white australia so warmly welcome visiting japanese sportsmen at a time when the pacific region appeared to be inexorably sliding into a war that was informed by racial antagonisms this book examines sporting relations between australia and seven asian countries china japan india netherlands east indies philippines malaya and singapore and a range of sports including rugby football swimming hockey boxing cricket and tennis this book was published as a special issue of sport in society nation constitutionalism and buddhism in sri lanka offers a new perspective on contemporary debates about sinhalese buddhist nationalism in sri lanka in this book de silva wijeyeratne argues forcefully that sinhalese buddhism in the period prior to its engagement with the british colonial state signified a relatively unbounded although at times boundary forming set of practices that facilitated both the inclusion and exclusion of non buddhist concepts and people within a particular cosmological frame juxtaposing the premodern against the backdrop of colonial modernity de silva wijeyeratne tells us that in contrast modern sinhalese buddhist nationalism is a much more reified and bounded concept one imagined through a 19th century epistemology whose purpose was not so much inclusion but a much more radical exclusion of non buddhist ideas and people in this insightful analysis modern sinhalese buddhist nationalism then emerges through the conjunction of discourse power and knowledge at a distinct moment in the trajectory of the colonial state an intrinsic feature of this modernist moment is that premodern categories such as the cosmic order were subject to a bureaucratic re valuation that generated profound consequences for state society relations and the wider constitutional legal imaginary this book goes on to explore how key constitutional and nation building moments were framed within the cultural milieu of modern sinhalese buddhist nationalism a nationalism that reveals the power of a re valued buddhist cosmic order to still inform the present given the intensification of the sinhalese buddhist nationalist project following the defeat of the tamil tigers in 2009 this book is of interest to scholars of nationalism south asian studies the anthropology of ritual and comparative legal history
