it was november 1943 and a german heinkel bomber limped over the irish coastline in high winds the pilots struggled valiantly to control the badly damaged plane but it was futile just as the plane crashed down onto irish soil a terrified karl muller looked back at the wooden box emblazoned with a swastika that was strapped down in the rear and wondered was it worth it john morgan is an everyday irish guy in his early thirties who is has just lost his fiancée in a tragic accident unable to cope with her death he leaves their dublin house to stay in his aunt s holiday home in county wexford to give himself the opportunity to re build his life in this idyllic seaside setting not only does he find the peace that he is desperately seeking he also finds new friends in the muller s the larger than life family who own the local hotel but one weekend all of their lives get turned upside down as muller s past finally catches up with him in the most violent way possible with the lives of karl muller s granddaughter and great grandson at risk from modern day neo nazi s they call on the only person that they trust to save them but is morgan already sixty years too late the first in a thrilling new series of novels under an irish sky introduces john morgan a new hero to thrill readers of all ages a companion volume to the author s successful text analysing architecture this book follows the same approach and format to explore conceptual themes in architecture further just a boy from home with songs stories and recipes bill bourke shared this entire book from memory it contains stories and historical facts about the catholic church the striping of the land after the south gained independence and the words to an ira song the dublin trials that his father sang there are many more songs of mayo poems and expressions that otherwise could possibly be forgotten or lost if he had not agreed to sit for many hours reminiscing you will read about patrick shannon a mayo man who was a hero in world war i also how his good friend michael fitzpatrick received his american citizenship 52 years after his untimely death in korea bill tells of the irish camaraderie that was already present in chicago upon his arrival and how he got a job being just a boy from home the singing and dancing that was found in the neighborhood pubs and said oh the fun we had but still the innate loneliness that could be felt in a room full of people for the mother he left behind in the tiny cottage at the end of the road in the village of ballymacredmond near the town of ballina in the county of mayo ireland bill married kitty morley a young girl from county mayo and continues his tra
