This edited collection explores the important connections between sexualities, geographies and leisure studies. Chapters consider aspects of sport, leisure and tourism and show how sexualities are produced and reproduced within these spatial realms. The critical and interdisciplinary analyses which are evident in the collection focus on sexuality and the socio-cultural power relations produced through and in the spaces of leisure. These theoretical discussions are all informed by recent research findings and importantly extend existing debates within the fields of geography and leisure studies. A range of appropriate and relevant topics are covered including critical debate on sexism, homophobic heterosexism and heteronormativity as well as specific LGBT experiences of sport, spectatorship, socialising, Mardi Gras and skiing. This book offers a unique collection and it is the first of its kind. This book was published as a special issue of Leisure Studies.

Shopping Around investigates the issues of contemporary popular narrative, feminine pleasure and consumer culture, viewing the permutations of the feminine subject as a textual construction evolved through everyday life. A wide spectrum of texts are examined, exposing the fact that women read within a complex and conflicted cultural arena characterized by a significant intertextuality that multiply defines femininity. Shopping Around raises these issues in the context of everyday cultural practices such as applying make-up, reading magazines, watching television and working out, providing a unique introduction to postmodern feminist and cultural theory.

Bonus: This ebook includes the full text of the book plus 50 photographs not found in the print version. In this inspiring and candid book, Jane Fonda, 1 bestselling author, actress and workout pioneer, gives us a blueprint for living well and for making the most of life, especially the second half of it, covering sex, love, food, fitness, self-understanding, spiritual and social growth and your brain in prime time. She offers a vision for successful living and maturing, A to Z, highlighting new research and stories from her own life and from the lives of others. Jane Fonda explores how the critical years from 45 and 50 and especially from 60 and beyond can be times when we truly become the energetic, loving, fulfilled people we were meant to be. Covering the 11 key ingredients for vital living, Fonda invites you to consider with her how to live a more insightful, healthy and fully integrated life, a life lived more profoundly in touch with ourselves, our bodies, minds and spirits and with our talents, friends and communities. In her research, Fonda discovered two metaphors, the arch and the staircase, that became for her two visions of life. She shows how to see your life the staircase way as one of continual ascent she explains how she came to understand the earlier decades of her life by performing a life review and she shows how you can do a life review too she reveals how her own life review enabled her to let go of old patterns to see what means the most to her and then to cultivate new goals and dreams to make the most of the mature years for there has been a longevity revolution and the average human life expectancy has jumped by years fonda asks what we are meant to do with this precious gift of time and she writes about how we can navigate the fertile voids that life periodically presents to us she makes suggestions about exercise including three key movements for optimal health diet how to eat by color meditation and how learning new things and creating fresh pathways in your brain can add quality to your life fonda writes of positivity and why many people are happier in the second half of their lives than they have ever been before in her 1 new york times bestselling memoir my life so far jane fonda focused on the first half of her extraordinary life what she called acts i and ii with an eye toward preparing for a vibrant act iii now we have a thoughtfully articulated memoir and guide for how to make all of your life and especially act iii prime time
