When Jeanne Starr Gater picks up the phone one morning, she receives the shock of her life. Her strong, robust athletic husband, Dr. Julius Gater, is in the hospital, comatose, suffering from a stroke, broken bones. Dr. J. is dying. A car accident that morning has left her husband unconscious, though still alive and hanging on for dear life. And it had been a good life, full of sunshine. Why this dear God? Why this? She knows she must get to him, and fast. They had come through too much together. If she gets to the hospital in time, they will come through this awful thing too. But she needs all her resources now. In her inner spirit, she petitions her God for mercy and compassion and strength to bring Dr. J. back from near death. Next, over time, she contacts her family and friends for their positive thoughts and prayers. She begins her long, hard journey to bring back summertime.
