after we've come to faith in christ god leaves us in this world for a very clear purpose his own glory but how are we to glorify god for the rest of our lives the bible reveals that god has laid before every christian two infinite journeys which we are to travel every day the internal journey of growth into christlike maturity and the external journey of worldwide evangelism and missions this book is a road map for the internal journey laying out how we are to grow in four major areas knowledge faith character and action in this book we'll learn how god grows us in knowledge faith character and action we'll also discover that spiritual knowledge constantly feeds our growing faith faith will transform our character our transformed character will result in an array of actions more and more glorifying to god and our actions will feed our spiritual knowledge this upward spiral will lead us to become more and more like Jesus Christ in holiness and not only will this book help us understand Christian growth in detail it will also give us a passion to grow every day for his glory

Gifts are always with us we use them positively to display affection and show gratitude for favours we suspect that others give and accept them as douceurs and bribes the gift also performed these roles in early modern English culture and assumed a more significant role because networks of informal support and patronage were central to social and political behaviour favours and their proper acknowledgement were preoccupations of the age of Erasmus Shakespeare and Hobbes as in modern society giving and receiving was complex and full of the potential for social damage almost nothing men of the Renaissance learned from that great classical guide to morality Lucius Annaeus Seneca is more disgraceful than the fact that we do not know how either to give or receive benefits the power of gifts is about those gifts and benefits what they were and how they were offered and received in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries it shows that the mode of giving as well as what was given was crucial to social bonding and political success the volume moves from a general consideration of the nature of the gift to an exploration of the politics of giving in the latter chapters some of the well known rituals of English court life the New Year ceremony royal progresses diplomatic missions are viewed through the prism of gift exchange gifts to monarchs or their ministers could focus attention on the donor those from the crown could offer some assurance of favour these fundamentals remained the same throughout the century and a half before the civil war but the attitude of individual monarchs altered specific behaviour Elizabeth expected to be wooed with gifts and dispensed benefits largely for service rendered James I modelled giving as the largesse of the Renaissance Prince Charles I's gift exchanges focused on the art collecting of his coterie and always in both politics and the law courts there was the danger that gifts would be corroded morphing from acceptable behaviour into bribes and corruption the power of gifts explores prescriptive literature pamphlets correspondence legal cases and financial records to illuminate social attitudes and behaviour through a rich series of examples and case studies
