when martyn lloyd jones physician preacher and christian leader died in 1981 after more than 40 years in london few knew the remarkable story of his formative earlier years which in the authorised biography is now told for the first time from his rural welsh background to st bartholomew s hospital where at the age of 23 he was chief clinical assistant to sir thomas horder the king s physician then suddenly at 27 to a struggling calvinistic methodist church in aberavon south wales he appears successively as schoolboy dairyman s assistant political enthusiast debater doctor and finally christian preacher some regarded his change of career as romantic others as foolish the one thing of which dr lloyd jones was sure was that his settlement amid the industrial depression of south wales was no sacrifice i gave up nothing i received everything i count it the highest honour god can confer on any man to call to be herald of the gospel
