when thomas mann began to work on his joseph novel he was motivated to do so by the image of the beautiful seventeen year old youth and the erotic attraction this image exercised on him personally he undertook to retell the biblical story of joseph in order to explore the meaning of this attraction in the phallic theology of the old testament israel s covenant with yahweh was a sacred marriage outwardly marked by circumcision for the purpose of mutual sanctification and aggrandizement mann discovered the framework of a metaphysics of homoerotic desire this book explores the many implications mann found in his biblical source including the paradoxical notion that a certain degree of suppression of the original desire is required if it is to continue to play its all important role as a motivating force
