remember that it is not a prayer because jesus never prayed for the sick it is a command so firmly get it fixed in your mind to say in the name of jesus we command and then speak to the part of the body that needs healing when jesus healed the sick man at the pool of bethesda he said rise take up your bed and walk john 5:8 in matthew 12:13 jesus commanded the man with the withered hand stretch out your hand and when the man did his hand was restored as whole as the other jesus disciples followed his example of making healing commands as recorded in acts 3:6 in the healing of the lame man then peter said silver and gold i do not have but what i do have i give to you in the name of jesus christ of nazareth rise up and walk verse 7 proclaims and he took him by the right hand and lifted him up and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength the scriptures go on to report that the healed man began walking and leaping and praising god notice also that when the people put their faith into action whether by stretching out their hand or taking up their bed and walking or rising up and walking they were healed

the purpose of key approaches to biblical ethics is to address fundamental as well as practical questions of methodology in examining the ethical material of the bible sixteen scholars of international reputation most of them leaders in the field of biblical ethics discuss questions of biblical interpretation from the perspectives of the hebrew bible and new testament ethics in close dialogue with one another in the present volume both established and new approaches to biblical ethics are presented and discussed the result is a volume of unprecedented scholarly interaction that provides key insights into issues of biblical ethics that play a significant role both for biblical interpretation as well as for methodological questions in jewish and christian ethics today
