two plays exploring the pain of living and the difficulty of dying by a sensational new writer juniper's whitening tell me this is it true that if you make someone die and they come out the other side it doesn't matter i'm sure something clung to lazarus something must've shone through him in aleph beth and juniper's nightmare house kindness is entrapment and resurrection is a weapon aleph love hates beth beth love hates aleph and all juniper knows is that beth can't seem to stop being murdered one thing above all none of them must look out of the window victimhood i was thinking eve that you need to touch bottom just so you know you can do it so you know it's not that difficult so you know that you don't have to tunnel far so you know that you're not that actually as deep as you think you are eve is unable to leave her student room but unable to bear staying in it in harming herself she hopes to demonstrate her courage and independence to both herself and her friends but her sister's arrival and need for her friendship forces her to face painful truths and to examine whether it is possible to temper emotional courage with the humanity to give and ask for aid meet the women writers who defied convention to craft some of literature's strangest tales from frankenstein to the haunting of hill house and beyond frankenstein was just the beginning horror stories and other weird fiction wouldn't exist without the women who created it from gothic ghost stories to psychological horror to science fiction women have been primary architects of speculative literature of all sorts and their own life stories are as intriguing as their fiction everyone knows about mary shelley creator of frankenstein who was rumored to keep her late husband's heart in her desk drawer but have you heard of margaret mad madge cavendish who wrote a science fiction epic 150 years earlier and liked to wear topless gowns to the theater if you know the astounding work of shirley jackson whose novel the haunting of hill house was reinvented as a netflix series then try the psychological hauntings of violet paget who was openly involved in long term romantic relationships with women in the victorian era you'll meet celebrated icons ann radcliffe v c andrews forgotten wordsmiths eli colter ruby jean jensen and today's vanguard helen oyeyemi curated reading lists point you to their most spine chilling tales part biography part reader's guide the engaging write ups and detailed reading lists will introduce you to more than a hundred authors and over two hundred of their mysterious and spooky novels novellas and stories this collection develops a body of research around critically acclaimed author helen oyeyemi putting her in dialogue with other contemporary writers and tracing her relationship with other works and literary traditions spanning the settings and cultural traditions of britain nigeria and the caribbean her work highlights the interconnected histories and cultures wrought by multiple waves of enslavement colonization and migration this collection describes how oyeyemi's work engages in an innovative way with gothic literature reworking the tropes of a western gothic tradition in order to examine the fraught process of establishing identity in a postcolonial context it demonstrates ways in which oyeyemi is also a trouble making feminist voice employing feminist strategies to rewrite genres parody literary forms and critique the characterization of woman in literature finally it suggests that oyeyemi's oeuvre marks a new direction in postcolonial studies as she writes within and about the former colonial centre of britain whilst foregrounding enduring colonial legacies that are referenced through the physical and psychological trauma associated with migration displacement racism and contested national identities maja was five years old when her black cuban family emigrated from the caribbean to london leaving her with one complete memory a woman singing in a voice both eerie and enthralling at their farewell party now almost twenty years later maja herself is a singer pregnant and haunted by what she calls her cuba
