this book first published in 1962 is a collection of essays on the ideological origins of the European revolutionary movement. The first essay in the collection is devoted to Saint-Simon, who though not a revolutionary in the ordinary sense was the begetter of the many ideas which became stock in trade of the nineteenth-century revolutionaries. The essays that follow are on Marx and the Communist Manifesto, Proudhon, Herzen, Lassalle, and Sorel on the foundation and early history of the Russian Communist Party, on the histories of the British and German Communist Parties, and on Lenin and Stalin.
