this volume approaches the word of faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through n t wright's model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the word of faith the reader receives insights into the movement's narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the word of faith interprets reality and engages with the world the analysis shows that there is a narrative core to word of faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of eden's authority and blessings this study demonstrates how the word of faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and eden's perfection the findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts pentecostalism africans prevailing interest in the prosperity gospel is not only connected to the influence of american prosperity teachers reaching a worldwide audience through their imaginative use of the media but is also related to the african worldview and african traditional religion and its lasting influence on contemporary africans and the way they think about prosperity as well as their interest in prosperity in post colonial africa the research from a classical pentecostal perspective about the impact of the prosperity message on africa is necessary timely and relevant because of its influence in the african pentecostal movement and its potential to harm the faith of believers leading to the potential disillusionment of christian believers who put their trust and money in formulas and recipes that seemingly only work for others especially the prosperity leaders who lead by example with incredulous riches and wealth many twenty first century evangelical charismatics in britain are looking for a faith that works they want to experience the miraculous in terms of healings and god sent financial provision many have left the mainstream churches to join independent charismatic churches led by those who are perceived to have special insights into faith and to teach principles that will help believers experience the miraculous but all is not rosy in this promised paradise and when people are not healed or they remain poor they are often told that it is because they did not have enough faith or are too negative this study seeks to discover the origin of the principles that are taught by some charismatic leaders ackerley identifies them as the same ideas that are taught by the positive confession health wealth and prosperity movement originating in the united states the origins of the ideas are traced back to new thought metaphysics and its background philosophies of subjective idealism and american pragmatism these principles were imported into the uk through contact between british leaders and those influenced and trained by american word of faith teachers the author seeks to explain the persuasiveness of such teachers through examining case studies he suggests their miracles may well have social and psychological explanations rather than divine origins exploring prosperity preaching the author uses history and sociology to consider the impact of these churches and their ideologies on black communities and the black church
