by presenting an autobiographical narration of his life author josh wa maoto seeks to reveal how god has demonstrated his love and mercy for him his childhood life might have seemed to be smooth sailing on the surface but the reality was tougher than it appeared his road was full of bumps and he owes it all to god in fact maoto believes god designed his life that way intentionally in order to show his true nature of providence to the world although the names of people places and businesses have been changed speaking from the heart shares the true story of maoto s life experiences his aim is to inspire hope in the many hopeless young men and women who have been neglected by their parents his goal is to help these young people continue to dream big and work beyond minimum expectations as long as we trust in the general goodness of humanity as an extension of jehovah s true nature of providence victory is certain for the faithful this personal narrative and testimony uses the lens of faith to recall one man s life history growing up and coming of age in south africa in the midst of apartheid like millions of black south africans made strangers in the land of their birth ellen kuzwayo lost a great deal in her lifetime the farm in the orange free state that had belonged to her family for nearly a hundred years her hopes for a full and peaceful life for her children and even her freedom when at the age of 63 she found herself detained under the so called terrorism act for an offence never specified but she never lost her courage this remarkable autobiography refuses to focus only on the author for it draws on the unrecorded history of a whole people in telling her own personal and political story over 70 years ellen kuzwayo speaks for and with the women among whom she worked and lived their courage and dignity remain a source of wonder and inspiration
